[9] Giving The Pledge Of Allegiance To Take Part In Jihad

4166- It is narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Umayyah that he said: I brought my father to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of the conquest (of Mecca) and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Accept from this (my father) the pledge of allegiance for Migration." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've accepted his pledge of allegiance to take part in Jihad, for indeed the Migration (from Mecca or to Medina) has ended."

4167- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, while there was a group of his companions round him: "You should give me the pledge of allegiance, not to ascribe anything to Allah (in worship), not to commit theft, not to commit adultery, not to kill your children, not to bring about lies which you fake against one another, and not to disobey me in doing any good: whoever among you fulfills all of that, his reward is incumbent upon Allah; and whoever commits anything of that for which he is punished in the world, it is an expiation for him; and whoever commits anything of that and Allah screens him, his matter is up to Allah: he could forgive him if He so likes, or punish him if He so likes."

4168- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Should you not give me the pledge of allegiance for the same things for which women have given me the pledge of allegiance? It is not to ascribe anything to Allah (in worship), not to commit theft, not to commit adultery, not to kill your children, not to bring about lies which you fake against one another, and not to disobey me in doing any good." We said: "Yes, we do O Messenger of Allah." We gave him the pledge of allegiance for that. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, whoever commits anything afterwards for which he is punished in the world, it is an expiation for him; and if he is not punished, his matter is up to Allah: he could forgive him if He so likes, or punish him if He so likes."

[10] Giving The Pledge Of Allegiance For Migration

4169- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I've come to give you the pledge of allegiance for migration, and I've left my parents weeping (for missing me)." On that he said: "Return to them, and make them laugh as you have made them weep."

(9) - الْبَيْعَةُ عَلَى الْجِهَادِ

4166 - أَخْبَرَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو بْنِ السَّرْحِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو وَهْبٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ الْحَارِثِ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ أَنَّ عَمْرُو بْنَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أُمَيَّةَ ابْنَ أَخِي يَغْلَى بْنِ أُمَيَّةَ حَدَّثَهُ أَنَّ أَبَاهُ أَخْبَرَهُ أَنَّ يَغْلَى بْنَ أُمَيَّةَ قَالَ: جِئْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِأَبِي أُمَيَّةَ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ بَايِعْ أَبِي عَلَى الْهَجْرَةِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أُبَايِعُهُ عَلَى الْجِهَادِ وَقَدْ انْقَطَعَتِ الْهَجْرَةُ».

4168 - أَخْبَرَنِي أَحْمَدُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنْ صَالِحِ بْنِ كَيْسَانَ عَنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ فَضِيلٍ أَنَّ ابْنَ شِهَابٍ حَدَّثَهُ عَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «أَلَا تُبَايِعُونِي عَلَى مَا بَايَعَ عَلَيْهِ النِّسَاءُ؟ أَنْ لَا تُشْرِكُوا بِاللَّهِ شَيْئًا وَلَا تَسْرِقُوا وَلَا تَزْنُوا وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَوْلَادَكُمْ وَلَا تَأْتُوا بِبُهْتَانٍ تَفْتَرُونَهُ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَأَرْجُلِكُمْ وَلَا تَعْصُونِي فِي مَعْرُوفٍ؟» قُلْنَا: بَلَى يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فَبَايَعْنَاهُ عَلَى ذَلِكَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَمَنْ أَصَابَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ شَيْئًا فَنَالَتْهُ عُقُوبَةٌ فَهُوَ كَفَّارَةٌ وَمَنْ لَمْ تَنْلَهُ عُقُوبَةٌ فَأَمَرَهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنْ شَاءَ عَفَرَ لَهُ وَإِنْ شَاءَ عَاقَبَهُ».

(10) - الْبَيْعَةُ عَلَى الْهَجْرَةِ

4169 - أَخْبَرَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ حَبِيبٍ بْنِ عَرَبِيِّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو: أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَتَى النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: إِنِّي جِئْتُ أُبَايِعُكَ عَلَى الْهَجْرَةِ وَلَقَدْ تَرَكْتُ أَبَوَيَّ يَبْكِيَانِ قَالَ: «أَرْجِعْ إِلَيْهِمَا فَأُضْحِكُهُمَا كَمَا أَبْكَيْتُهُمَا».

[11] The Matter Of Migration

4170- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that a Bedouin asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about Migration. He said: "Allah's Mercy be upon you! No doubt, the matter of Migration is very difficult. But have you got camels?" The Bedouin said: "Yes." He asked: "Do you fulfill the obligatory charity due upon them?" He said: "Yes." He said: "Go on doing good deeds even though from behind the seas, for surely Allah will never leave any of your deeds without reward."

[12] The Migration Of A Desert Dweller

4171- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: A man said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Which migration is the best (and most rewardable in the Sight of Allah)?" he said: "It is to forsake what your Lord Almighty dislikes." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Migration is of two kinds: the migration of a town dweller, and the migration of a desert dweller. As for a desert dweller, (it is sufficient for him) to respond (to the invitation of Jihad) once he is called, and obey (the command of the ruler) once he is commanded to do anything. As for a town dweller, the trial to which he is put is more grievous, and the reward he receives is much greater."

[13] The Significance Of Migration

4172- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abu Bakr and Umar were from amongst the Emigrants (Muhajirs), for they forsook the (homeland and) left the pagans; and from amongst the Ansar, there were also Emigrants, for by then, the Medina was a homeland of paganism, and they came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the night of Aqabah (to give him the pledge of allegiance).

[14] Exhortation To Emigrate

But this nation of yours has its days of peace and (security) in the beginning of its life, and in the last phase of its existence it will be afflicted with trials and with things disagreeable to you, when there will be tremendous trials one after the other, each making the previous one dwindle into insignificance. When they would be afflicted with a trial, the believer would say: This is going to bring about my destruction. When it would be over, they would be afflicted with another trial, and the believer would say: This surely is going to be my end. Whoever wishes to be moved from the fire and be admitted to the Garden should die with faith in Allah and the Last Day and should treat the people as he wishes to be treated by them. 4208- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah never sends a Prophet, or makes anyone a vicegerent but that he appoints two retinues for him: one to enjoin good upon him, and another to enjoin evil upon him; and the protected one is him, whom Allah Almighty saves (from the evil one)."

4209- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ayyub that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "There is no Prophet sent (by Allah Almighty) or ruler appointed to succeed him but that he has two retinues: one to enjoin good upon him, and forbid him to do evil, and the other to leave no chance without causing him to do mischief; and whoever is saved from the evil retinue has indeed been delivered (from evil)."

4210- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad that he said: I heard my paternal aunt having said: "Whoever among you is appointed to be in charge of a job, with whom Allah intends to do good, He makes for him a good minister: when he forgets anything he (the minister) reminds him; and when he remembers anything (to do), he helps him do it."

[34] The Penalty Of Such As Is Ordered To Do An Act Of Disobedience, And He Does It

4211- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent an expedition and appointed somebody over them. He kindled a fire and said: "Enter it." Some people decided to enter it (the fire), (in implementation of the order of their leader), but the others said: "We've fled from the fire (since we embraced Islam)." The matter was mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said to those who decided to enter (the fire at the command of their leader): "If you had entered it, you would have remained there until the Day of Judgment." He lauded the act of the others and said: "There is no obedience in matters involving Allah's disobedience or displeasure. Obedience is obligatory only in what is good."

4212- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Muslim has to hearken and obey (the ruler) in (all things, no matter) he likes or dislikes, unless he is ordered to do any act of disobedience; and once he is ordered to do any act of disobedience, no hearing nor obedience is binding."

4213- It is narrated on the authority of Ka'b Ibn Ujrah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out upon us and we were nine, and he said: "After me, there will come rulers, and he, who makes belief of their lies, and helps them do their wrong, does not belong to me, and I have no connection with him, and he will never come upon me on the Fountain; and he, who does not make belief of their lies, nor does he help them do their wrong, belongs to me, and I have connection with him, and he will come upon me on the Fountain."

(41) THE BOOK OF AQIQAH

(What is slaughtered for a born child usually seven days after his birth, in order to remove harm and evil from him; and it is of a single sheep for a female and two sheep for a male).

[1]

4218- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about Aqiqah, thereupon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah Almighty dislikes disobedience (of one's father when he leaves Aqiqah, and of one's son in his defiance to his parents)." He (the Prophet) seemed to have aversion towards its name, thereupon the asker said to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (once again): "We ask you when a child is born for anyone of us." On that he said: "One could offer a sacrifice for his born child if he so likes: two similar sheep for a male, and a single sheep for a female." Dawud said: I asked Zaid Ibn Aslam about the two similar sheep, thereupon he said: Two sheep of similar age, which are to be slaughtered together.

4219- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered sacrifice on behalf of both Al-Hasan and Al-Husain.

4221- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Kurz that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "To offer two sheep of similar age is binding (as Aqiqah) on behalf of the male child, and a single sheep on behalf of the female child."

[3] What Is Offered As Aqiqah For A Female Child

4222- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Kurz that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "To offer two sheep of similar age is binding (as Aqiqah) on behalf of the male child, and a single sheep on behalf of the female child."

Behold! Those days are days of eating, drinking and celebrating (the Praises of) Allah Almighty." A man said: "O Messenger of Allah! We used to offer (as sacrifice) a sheep in the month of Rajab during the period of ignorance: what do you order us concerning that?" (43) THE BOOK OF GAMES AND SLAUGHTERED ANIMALS

[1] The Command To Mention Allah's Name On Hunting

4269- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about hunting, thereupon he said: "When you set off your dog, mention Allah's Name on it: if you catch it and he has not killed (the game), slaughter it and mention Allah's Name on it; and if you catch it and it has killed but has not eaten (of the game) you might eat of it, for he has caught it for you. But if you find that it has eaten of it, eat nothing from it, for in this case, he has caught it for itself. Furthermore, if many dogs mix with yours, and they kill the game but eat nothing of it, you should eat nothing of it, for you do not know which of them has killed it."

[2] It Is Forbidden To Eat Such Of Animals As On Which Allah's Name Has Not Been Mentioned

4270- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he said: I asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the game killed by a sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a sharp piece of iron used for hunting. He said: "If the game is killed with its sharp edge, eat of it, but if it is killed with its shaft, (i.e. with a hit by its broad side) then the game is unlawful (to eat) for it has been beaten to death." I asked him about my hunting dog. He replied: "If you set off (with Allah's name) your dog after a game and it catches it, even though it does not eat of it, you may eat of it, for its catching a game makes it lawful (for eating). If there is another dog with your dog, and you are afraid it has taken part with yours in catching and killing, then do not eat of it, for in fact, you've mentioned Allah's Name on your dog, and not on the other."

[3] Hunting With The Help Of A Trained Dog

4271- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he said: I said: "I set off my trained dog and it catches (the game for me)." He said: "When you set off your trained dog and you recite the name of Allah on setting it off, and it catches (the game for you), then eat (the game)." I said: "Even if this (the trained dog) kills that (game)?" He (the Prophet) said: "Even if it kills." I said to him: "I throw a heavy featherless blunt arrow, for hunting and killing (the game)." He said: "When you throw such a featherless blunt arrow, and it pierces with its sharp edge, then eat, but if it falls flatly (and beats the game to death), then do not eat that."

[4] Hunting With The Help Of An Untrained Dog

4272- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Tha'labah Al-Khushani that he said: I said: "O Allah's Apostle! We are living in a land in which there is plenty of game and I hunt the game with my bow and with my tamed and untamed hound. Then what is lawful for me to eat?" He said: "If you hunt an animal with your bow after mentioning Allah's Name, eat of it. And if you hunt something with your trained hound after mentioning Allah's Name, eat of it, and if you hunt something with your untrained hound and get it before it dies and you are able to slaughter it, (slaughter and then) eat of it."

[5] When A Hunting Dog Kills (The Game)

4273- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I set off my trained dogs and they catch for me (the game): what is lawful for me to eat?" He said: "When you set off your trained dogs, then eat (the game)." I said: "Even if these (trained dogs) kill that (the game)?" He (the Prophet) said: "Even if these kill, but (on the condition) that no other dog, which you have not set off (along with your dogs), participates (in catching the game)." I said to him: "I throw a heavy featherless blunt arrow, for hunting and it pierces (the game)." He said: "When you throw such a featherless blunt arrow, and it pierces (with its sharp edge), then eat, but if it falls flatly (and beats the game to death), then do not eat that."

[8] When The (Hunting) Dog Eats Of The Game

4280- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he said: I asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the game killed by a sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a sharp piece of iron used for hunting. He said: "If the game is killed with its sharp edge, eat of it, but if it is killed with its shaft, (i.e. with a hit by its broad side) then the game is unlawful (to eat) for it has been beaten to death." I asked him about the hunting dog. He replied: "If you set off your dog after a game and you've mentioned Allah's name on it, you may eat of it." I asked: "Even if it kills (the game)?" he said: "Even if it kills (the game); and if it has eaten of it, then, do not eat of it. But if you find another dog with yours, and it has killed (the game), then do not eat of it, for in fact, you've mentioned Allah's Name on your dog, and not on the other."

[24] Chasing The Game

4315- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who lives in the desert becomes heart-hardened; and he who always chases the game becomes heedless; and he, who always lags behind the authority becomes tempted (from the religion)."

[25] The Rabbit

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" refrained from eating, even though he ordered the people to eat. The desert Arab also refrained from eating, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "What does prevent you from eating?" He said: "I'm fasting three days (as I am used to observe three fasts) monthly." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you are to observe (those three) fasts, let your fasting be on the (three white) nights on which the moon is full."

4317- It is narrated on the authority of Umar that he said: "Who among us was present on the day of Qaha (a place three miles from Medina)?" Abu Dharr said: "I! a rabbit was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the man who brought it said: "I have seen it menstruating." On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" refrained from eating, even though he said (to his present companions): "Eat." A man said: "I'm fasting." He asked him: "Which fast are you observing?" he said: "Three fasts monthly." On that he said: "Where are you from the white three nights, on which the moon is full? i.e. the thirteenth, the fourteenth, and the fifteenth."

4318- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: We chased a rabbit at Marr Az-Zahran, and I caught and brought it to Abu Talhah, who slaughtered it, and sent with me its thighs and hips to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who accepted it.

4319- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Safwan that he said: I caught two rabbits, and since I found nothing therewith to slaughter them, I slaughtered them with a sharp-edged stone; and when I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, he told me to eat them (as being lawful).

It is the meat of a mastigure." Then, he lifted his hand (from it). Khalid Ibn Al-Walid asked: “Is (the meat of a) mastigure unlawful to eat?" The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “No, but it does not exist in the land of my people, so I disgust it." Khalid stretched his hand towards the mastigure and started eating (it) while The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” was looking at him.

4323- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that Khalid Ibn Al-Walid told him that he went with The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” to the house of Maimunah, the aunt of both him (and Ibn Abbas). The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” left it. Khalid Ibn Al-Walid said: I asked him: “O Allah's Apostle! Is it unlawful to eat?" The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “No, but it does not exist in the land of my people, so I disgust it." Khalid added: Then I pulled the mastigure towards me which I ate while The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” was looking at me. The same is narrated on the authority of Ibn Al-Asamm from Maimunah, and he was under his guardianship.

[35] The Sea Dead Animals

4356- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, concerning the sea water: "It (the sea) is that, whose water is pure, and dead animals are lawful (to eat)."

4357- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us (in a military expedition) and we were three hundred; and we were carrying our provisions on our necks (on account of being light in weight). Then, our provisions were about to be consumed that each man of us had no more than a single date (to sustain him for the whole day). It was said: O Abu Abdullah! What could a single date do with a man (for a whole day)? He said: No doubt, we came to know its significance when we lost it. Then, we came upon the sea, and behold! There was a big fish, ejected by the sea, from which we kept eating for eighteen days.

4358- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us (on an expedition). We were three hundred riders and our chief (leader) was Abu Ubaidah Ibn Al-Jarrah. We were to watch a caravan belonging to the Quraish (people). So we stayed on the coast (for half a month), and were so much afflicted by extreme hunger that we (were forced) to eat leaves beat by our staffs. The sea cast out for us an animal, which was called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale). We ate of that for half a month and rubbed its fat on our (bodies) until our bodies became stout. Abu Ubaidah caught hold of one of its ribs and fixed that up. He then cast a glance at the tallest man of the army and the highest of the camels. Then he made him ride over it, and that man passed beneath it (the arched rib). When we were afflicted by hunger, a person slaughtered three camels, then we were afflicted by hunger, and a person slaughtered other three camels, and then we were afflicted by hunger, and a person slaughtered three camels, then Abu Ubaidah forbade us (to do so for fear that we might become short of mounts). When we asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that (after we had returned to Medina) he said to us: "Have you got anything of that?" We extracted many pitchers of fat from the cavity of its eye, in which four men sat down. Abu Ubaidah had small bags containing dates (before finding that whale), from which he gave every person amongst us a handful of dates (everyday, and when the food ran short), he then gave each one of us no more than a single date (daily). When that (stock) was exhausted, we felt its loss.

4356 - أَخْبَرَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ قَالَ:

4357 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ آدَمَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُهُ عَنْ هِشَامٍ عَنْ وَهْبِ بْنِ

كَيْسَانَ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: بَعَثَنَا النَّبِيُّ ﷺ وَنَحْنُ ثَلَاثُمِائَةٍ نَحْمِلُ زَادَنَا عَلَى رِقَابِنَا فَقَنِي زَادَنَا حَتَّى كَانَ يَكُونُ لِلرَّجُلِ مِنَّا كُلَّ يَوْمٍ تَمْرَةٌ فَقِيلَ لَهُ: يَا أَبَا عَبْدِ اللَّهِ وَأَيْنَ تَقْعُ التَّمْرَةُ مِنَ الرَّجُلِ؟ قَالَ: لَقَدْ وَجَدْنَا فَقْدَهَا حِينَ فَقَدْنَاهَا فَأَتَيْنَا الْبَحْرَ فَإِذَا بِحُوتٍ قَذَفَهُ الْبَحْرُ فَأَكَلْنَا مِنْهُ ثَمَانِيَةَ عَشَرَ يَوْمًا.

4358 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ عَنْ عَمْرِو قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ

جَابِرًا يَقُولُ: بَعَثَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ ثَلَاثُمِائَةَ رَاكِبٍ أَمِيرُنَا أَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ نَرْصُدُ عِيرَ قُرَيْشٍ فَأَقَمْنَا بِالسَّاحِلِ فَأَصَابَنَا جُوعٌ شَدِيدٌ حَتَّى أَكَلْنَا الْحَبْطَ قَالَ: فَأَلْقَى الْبَحْرُ دَابَّةً يُقَالُ لَهَا الْعَنْبَرُ فَأَكَلْنَا مِنْهُ نِصْفَ شَهْرٍ وَادَّهَنَّا مِنْ وَدَكِهِ فَثَابَتَ أَجْسَامُنَا وَأَخَذَ أَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ ضِلْعًا مِنْ أَضْلَاعِهِ فَنَظَرَ إِلَى أَطْوَلِ جَمَلٍ وَأَطْوَلِ رَجُلٍ فِي الْجَيْشِ فَمَرَّ تَحْتَهُ ثُمَّ جَاعُوا فَنَحَرَ رَجُلٌ ثَلَاثَ جَزَائِرٍ ثُمَّ جَاعُوا فَنَحَرَ رَجُلٌ ثَلَاثَ جَزَائِرٍ ثُمَّ جَاعُوا فَنَحَرَ رَجُلٌ ثَلَاثَ جَزَائِرٍ ثُمَّ نَهَاهُ أَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ قَالَ سُفْيَانُ: قَالَ أَبُو الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ جَابِرٍ: فَسَأَلْنَا النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «هَلْ مَعَكُمْ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ؟» قَالَ: فَأَخْرَجْنَا مِنْ عَيْنَيْهِ كَذَا وَكَذَا قُلَّةً مِنْ وَدَكٍ وَنَزَلَ فِي حَجَّاجٍ عَيْنِهِ أَرْبَعَةَ نَفَرٍ وَكَانَ مَعَ أَبِي عُبَيْدَةَ جَرَابٌ فِيهِ تَمْرٌ فَكَانَ يُعْطِينَا الْقُبْضَةَ ثُمَّ صَارَ إِلَى التَّمْرَةِ فَلَمَّا فَقَدْنَاهَا وَجَدْنَا فَقْدَهَا.

4359- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us in a military expedition under the leadership of Abu Ubaidah, and we became short of provision, and we came upon a whale cast by the sea, and wanted to eat from it. Abu Ubaidah forbade us at first, and then he said: "No doubt, we're the messengers of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and (our task is) in Allah's Cause: so, you might eat of it." We kept eating of it for many days. When we returned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him about that, he said to us: "If anything of that remains with you, send it to us."

4360- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us on a military expedition, and we were over three hundred and ten, under the leadership of Abu Ubaidah and he (The Prophet) provided us with a bag of dates. Abu Ubaidah gave each of us (at first) a handful of dates daily, and when dates were about to be exhausted, he then reduced it to a single date (every day). We sucked it just as a baby sucks and then drank water over it, (and it sufficed us for the day until night). When we lost it, we came to feel its loss. We beat off leaves with the help of our staffs, then drenched them with water and ate them, and drank water over that, and this is why we were called the army of Leaves. We then went to the coast of the sea, and there rose before us on the coast of the sea a beast like a big mound called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale). Abu Ubaidah said: "It is dead." He then said: "No (but it does not matter), we are the army sent by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the way of Allah and we are hard-pressed (on account of the scarcity of food), so you might eat that in Allah's Name." We ate of it and sliced from it compact pieces of meat which we dried (to use during our journey). Thirteen men from us sat in the cavity of its eye. Abu Ubaidah took hold of one of the ribs of its chest and made it stand and then saddled the biggest of the camels we had with us and it passed under it (the arched rib). When we came back to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he asked us: "What has delayed you to come back?" we said: "We have been pursuing the caravan of the Quraish (people)." We further made a mention to him of the sea beast, whereupon he said: "That was a provision which Allah had brought forth for you. Is there anything of it (left) with you?" we answered in the affirmative.

[36] The Frog

4361- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Uthman that a physician asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to use the frog in his medicine, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade him to kill it (i.e. the forbiddance implies also its being used in medicine).

[37] The Locusts

[38] Killing Ants

4364- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "An ant bit one of the Prophets, thereupon he ordered that the village of ants be burnt. Allah Almighty revealed to him: 'Is it that an ant has bitten you, you've destroyed a whole sect, glorifying (Allah Almighty)?'"

4365- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan that he said: One of the Prophets descended under a tree and an ant stung him, thereupon he ordered that the house of ants be burnt; and it was done accordingly. On that Allah Almighty revealed to him: "Why have you not burnt the very ant (which stung you)?"

4366- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said the same, with the addition that "For they glorify Allah Almighty."

The people used to get benefit from their sacrifices. They used to melt fat and make water-skins from them.” the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “What is the matter?” they said: “You forbade (them) to eat the meat of sacrificial animals beyond three (days).” He said: “I forbade you for those (poor persons) who flocked (to the towns on this occasion for meat) but now when this occasion has improved you may eat, preserve and give in charity.”

She further said: "But later I saw the family of Muhammad "Peace be upon him" having used to store even the trotter of a sheep to eat beyond fifteen days." He asked her: "What is the reason for that?" A'ishah smiled and said: "The family of Mohammad did not eat to their satisfaction white bread with meat soup for three successive days till he (died and) met Allah Almighty."

4440- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abis from his father that he said: I asked A'ishah about the meat of sacrifice, thereupon she said: We used to keep the trotter of a sheep for The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for even a month, after which he ate it.

[24] The Interpretation Of That

4517- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching, i.e. to touch the garment (and thus the transaction is confirmed) without checking it, and throwing, i.e. that the seller throws the garment to the buyer (and thus the bargain is confirmed) before turning or checking it.

[25] Selling By Way Of Throwing

4518- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching and throwing.

4519- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade two kinds of transaction: (he forbade selling by way of) touching and throwing.

[26] The Interpretation Of That

4520- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching and throwing. As for the selling by way of touching, it is that two men enter into a bargain upon two garments at night, and each of them touches the garment of his companion with his own hand (therewith the bargain is confirmed). As for selling by way of throwing, it is that a man throws a garment to the other, who, in turn, throws another garment to him, therewith the bargain is confirmed between them.

4521- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching, i.e. to touch the garment (and thus the transaction is confirmed) without checking it, and throwing, i.e. that the seller throws the garment to the buyer (and thus the bargain is confirmed) before turning or checking it.

4522- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade two kinds of clothes, as well as he forbade two kinds of transaction. As for the two kinds of transaction, they are to sell by way of touching and throwing. As to selling by way of throwing, it is that he (the seller) says (to the buyer): 'Once I throw this garment, the bargain becomes binding'. As for selling by way of touching, it is that he only touches the garment with his hand, without spreading or turning it, and once he touches it, the bargain is affirmed.

4523- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (us to practice) two kinds of clothes, as well as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to practice two kinds of transaction. As for the two kinds of transaction, they are to sell by way of touching and throwing. Those were two kinds of transaction which they used to practice during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance.

4524- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade two kinds of transaction. As for those kinds of transaction, they are the selling by way of touching and throwing. He pretended that selling by way of touching means that a man says to the other: 'Let me sell to you my garment for yours', even though none of them should look at the garment of the other, but he only touches it. As for the selling by way of throwing, it means that a man says to the other: 'Let me throw what I have, and you throw what you have', with the intention that each should purchase what the other has, even though none of them knows how much the other has, and the like of that.

[27] Selling With The Help Of Pebbles

(It is that a contract between both parties of transaction is based upon the fact that one of them says to the other: 'Once I throw the pebbles to you, the bargain then has been affirmed'; according to another interpretation, the contract is based upon the condition that one of them throws a pebble at a flock of sheep, and what it affects should be the sold one).

4525- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling with the help of pebbles, as well as he forbade selling that whose nature is unknown (even though its appearance might seem evident).

[28] Selling Fruits Before Their Benefit Seems Evident

4561- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salih that a companion of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told him that he said: "O Messenger of Allah! We could not get the best kind of dates (from its owners) by (our bad kind of dates consisting of) mixture of dates until we increase (from ours) to them." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Sell yours by silver (i.e. by money), therewith you could buy (what you like)."

[41] Selling Dates For Dates From Different Kinds

4562- It is narrated on the authority of both Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri and Abu Hurairah that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed somebody as a governor of Khaibar. That governor brought to him an excellent kind of dates (from Khaibar). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Are all the dates of Khaibar like this?" He replied: "By Allah, no, O Allah's Apostle! But we barter one Sa of this (type of dates) for two Sas of dates of ours and two Sas of it for three of ours." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do so (as that is a kind of usury) but sell the mixed dates (of inferior quality) for money, with which you could buy the excellent kind of dates."

4563- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that once, very soft dates (whose trees were watered by irrigation) were brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the date-palms belonging to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" were watered by no irrigation, whose fruits were hard. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "From where have you brought that?" they said: "We've bought a single Sa' of that for two from ours." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do so, since this is not right. But rather sell your dates (for money) therewith buy as much of that as you need."

4564- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: During the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we used to be provided by dates of mixed kinds, which we used to sell for a better kind as two Sa's by one. When the news of that reached Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said: "No pair of Sa's of dates should be sold by one, nor pair of Sa's of wheat by one, nor Dirham (should be exchanged) by two."

4565- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: We used to sell two Sa's of dates of mixed kinds for a single Sa' of a better kind. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No

4566- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: Bilal brought Barni dates (an excellent kind of dates) to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who asked him: "What is that?" he said: "I've bought one Sa' of that by two Sa's (of dates of inferior kind)." On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Oh! This is the true usury. Do not approach it."

4567- It is narrated on the authority of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab that he heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "(The barter of) gold by silver (i.e. the exchange of Dinars by Dirhams) is (a kind of) usury unless it is this by that (i.e. on the spot, from hand to hand); (selling) dates for dates is (a kind of) usury unless it is this by that (i.e. on the spot, from hand to hand); (selling) wheat for wheat is (a kind of) usury unless it is this by that (i.e. on the spot, from hand to hand) and (selling) parley for parley is (a kind of) usury unless it is this by that (i.e. on the spot, from hand to hand)."

4568- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(It is permissible to sell) dates for (similar amount of) dates, wheat for (similar amount of) wheat, parley for (similar amount of) parley, and salt for (similar amount of) salt, (on the spot) from hand to hand. Whoever increases or accepts such increase has indeed practiced usury, unless the bargain is based upon different kinds (of goods)."

[43] Selling Wheat For Wheat

4569- It is narrated on the authority of both Muslim Ibn Yasar and Abdullah Ibn Atik that they said: Both Ubadah Ibn As-Samit and Mu'awiyah gathered in the same city, and Ubadah told them: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to barter gold for gold, silver for silver, wheat for wheat, parley for parley, dates for dates, and (one of the narrators added) salt for salt (but the other did not mention it), unless it is like by like, from hand to hand (on the spot); and he rather told us to sell gold for silver, silver for gold, wheat for parley, parley for wheat, from hand to hand, as much as we liked. [44] Selling Parley For Parley

4571- It is narrated on the authority of both Muslim Ibn Yasar and Abdullah Ibn Ubaid that they said: Both Ubadah Ibn As-Samit and Mu'awiyah gathered in the same city, and Ubadah said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to barter gold for gold, silver for silver, wheat for wheat, parley for parley, dates for dates, and (one of the narrators added) salt for salt (but the other did not mention it), unless it is similar by similar, like by like, (on the spot), (One of the narrators added, even though the other did not mention it) Whoever increases or accepts such increase has indeed practiced usury. He rather told us to sell gold for silver, silver for gold, wheat for parley, parley for wheat, (etc) from hand to hand, as much as we liked. When the news of that reached Mu'awiyah he stood and addressed the people saying: "What is the matter with some men who relate narrations from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? we've accompanied him, but we did not hear that from him." When the news of that reached Ubadah, he stood and repeated the same narration, and said: "We shall relate what we heard from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" even though against the will of Mu'awiyah."

4572- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit, and he was of those who attended the holy battle of Badr, and he gave the pledge of allegiance to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" not to fear, in (the religion of) Allah the blame of the blamer, that he stood and addressed the people saying: "O people! You've innovated kinds of transactions, and I do not know what they are. Behold! [77] When A Transaction Has A Condition And Both Are Valid

4646- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I was on journey in the company of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, and I was riding a camel which got exhausted. Then, I intended to let it off. The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” joined me and invoked good for me, and he poked it with the result that it turn to walk (so much fast) as it had never walked as such before. He said (to me): “Sell it to me for an ounce.” I said: “No.” he said once again: “Sell it to me.” I sold it to him for an ounce, on the condition that I should ride it until I reach Medina. When I reached Medina, I brought the camel to him, and asked for its price. When I returned, he sent (somebody) behind me (so that I might come to him, and when I came back to him) he said: “Do you see that I asked you to reduce (the price) in order to deprive you of your camel? Take your camel and the Dirhams besides (for it is a gift for you).”

4647- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I attended a certain expedition with The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, and I was riding a camel used for carrying water which got so exhausted that it was hardly walking. He poked it and invoked good for it. It (turned to be so much fast to the extent that it) was walking ahead of (all the camels of) the army. so, by virtue of your blessing." He said to me: "Do you sell your camel to me on the condition that you should ride it to Medina?" I sold it to him, even though I was in need of it (since I had no other camel) but I felt shy (to refuse). When we finished our expedition and returned and approached (Medina), I excused him to let me hasten to proceed saying: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm a newly married." He asked me: "What have you married? A virgin or a previously married woman?" I said to him: "I've married a previously married woman. O Messenger of Allah! Abdullah Ibn Haram (My father) died and left young sisters of mine. So, I disliked to marry a girl like them, and I rather married a previously married woman so that she would look after and educate them." He gave me permission (to hasten to proceed and asked me to come to my family in the evening. When I reached Medina, I told my maternal uncle about selling the camel and he blamed me for it. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Medina, I brought the camel to him in the morning. He gave me its price and returned it (the camel) to me, in addition to a share (from the war booty) with the people.

4648- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey , and I was riding a camel (which became tired). He asked me: "What is the reason that you are lagging behind the people?" I said: "My camel has got exhausted." He caught hold of its tail and poked it, with the result that I came to be ahead of all the people, exerting great effort to keep control over its head. When we approached Medina he (The Prophet) said to me: "What has happened to your camel? Sell it to me." I said: "No, it is a gift for you, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "No, sell it to me." I said: "No, it is a gift for you." He said: "No, sell it to me. I've purchased it for an ounce and you could ride it to Medina, and once you reach Medina, bring it to us." When I arrived in Medina, I brought it to him, thereupon he said to Bilal: "O Bilal! Weigh an ounce of gold and a Qirat more to him." I said: "This addition made by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would lie with me forever." It was in a case of mine, which remained with me until the people of Sham came on the day of Harrah and took what they took (on which there was fighting and robbery by the people of Syria in Medina in the sixty-third year of Hegira).

I said: "We still have a bad camel used for carrying water: alas!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you

4650- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: We were walking (on journey) with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and I was riding a camel used for carrying water, belonging to us. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Do you sell it to me for such and such (price) might Allah forgive for you?" I said: "Yes, it is for you O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Do you sell it to me for such and such (price) might Allah forgive for you?" I said: "Yes, it is for you O Messenger of Allah." [78] When A Valid Transaction Has An Invalid Condition

4651- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Aswad from A'ishah that she said: I bought Barirah, but her masters put the condition that her allegiance (the right of inheriting her property) would be for them. I told The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it. He said (to me): "Manumit her since the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property) will be for the one who pays the price." So, I manumitted her. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called Barirah and gave her the option of either staying with her husband or leaving him. She preferred her freedom to her husband; and her husband was a free man.

4652- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she intended to buy Barirah to emancipate her, but her masters put the condition that her allegiance (the right of inheriting her property) would be for them. She told The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to her): "Buy and manumit her since the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property) will be for the manumitter." Some meat was brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and it was said: "This was given in charity to Barirah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is an object of charity for her and (when she gives it to us, it is) a gift for us."

Then, some people stood in the way of the desert man, and started to haggle him on the horse, without knowing that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had bought it, and as a result of outbidding, one of them offered a price for the horse more than that suggested by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with which he bought the horse. 4658- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Ubaid that he said: We met Abu Ubaidah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud when two men came to him, and they had entered into a transaction over a certain commodity. One of them said: "I've taken it by such and such price." The other said: "I've sold it by such and such price." Abu Ubaidah said: A similar case was brought to Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, thereupon he said: I was present with The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” when a similar case was brought to him, and he ordered the seller to take oath, and the buyer to choose to take it if he so liked or leave it if he so liked.

This news reached the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Upon this he asked: "Do you have any property other than that?" He replied in the negative. He asked: "Who would buy (that slave) from me?" Nu'aim Ibn Abdullah Al-Adawi bought it for eight hundred Dirhams, which he brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (The Prophet) gave the money to him (the owner) and said: "Start with yourself and spend on it. If anything is left, it should be spent on your family. If anything is left from your family it should be spent on your kith and kin. If anything is left from your kith and kin, it should be spent like this, and like this,, i.e. (on whomever you find) In front of you, on your right and on your left."

[86] Selling A Slave Having A Written Deed Of Freedom For Money From Which He Paid Nothing

4665- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Barirah came to me and said: "O A'ishah! My masters gave me a written deed that I should be free in return for nine ounces (of gold) to be paid in installments along nine years. So, please, help me (pay it)." She had paid nothing of her deed. A'ishah said to her, and she had a desire for her: "Return to your masters and if they agree, I will pay them the sum at once (and free you) provided that your allegiance (the right of inheriting your property) will be for me." Barirah went to her masters and made a mention of that to them, but they refused that offer and said: "If she (A'ishah) is seeking for Allah's reward, then she can do so, but the right of inheriting the property of you will be for us." Then, A'ishah told the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. On that he said: "Let not (their condition) prevent you from getting her. Buy and manumit her, since the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property) is for the manumitter." She did accordingly. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then got up amongst the people, Glorified and Praised Allah, and said: "What about some people who impose conditions which are not present in Allah's Book (Laws)? So, any condition, which is not present in Allah's Book (Laws), is invalid even if there were one hundred conditions. Allah's ordinance is the truth, Allah's condition is stronger and constantly firmer. To be sure, the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property of the freed slave) is for the manumitter."

4686 - أَخْبَرَنِي عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ خَالِدٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ الْحَسَنِ وَاللَّفْظُ لَهُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَجَّاجُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ قَالَ: قَالَ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي ابْنُ أَبِي حُسَيْنٍ أَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ بْنَ عَمْرٍو بْنَ حَزْمٍ أَخْبَرَهُ أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ حَدَّثَهُ عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ حَدِيثِ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ: «عَنِ الرَّجُلِ يُعْذِمُ إِذَا وَجَدَ عِنْدَهُ الْمَتَاعَ بِعَيْنِهِ وَعَرَفَهُ أَنَّهُ لِصَاحِبِهِ الَّذِي بَاعَهُ».

4687- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that he said: during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a man was befallen (by a blight that damaged) the fruits he sold, which caused his debts to grow so much. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered the people to give him in charity. The people gave him in charity, but this did not cover the whole of his debt. On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Take only what you find with him, and you have no claim to take more than that."

[96] When A Man Sells A Thing Which Belongs To Another Person Who Deserves It

4688- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Hudair Ibn Simak that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed the judgement concerning the man who finds his very thing in the hand of somebody, other than the suspect, that he could take it back by the same price he (the latter) had bought it if he so liked, or pursue the thief if he so liked; and so did both Abu Bakr and Umar.

4689- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Hudair Al-Ansari, one of the sons of Banu Harithah that he told that he was the governor of Yamamah when Marwan sent to him a letter telling him that Mu'awiyah sent a letter to him in which he says that "If anything is stolen from a man, he is more entitled to take it wherever he finds it." Marwan sent a letter in this regard to him. (Usaid said) I sent my reply to Marwan in which I told that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed the judgement that if its purchaser was not suspect, then, its owner should have the freedom to choose to take back his stolen thing for the same price by which it was purchased if he so likes, or pursue the thief if he so likes; and so did Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman. Marwan sent my letter to Mu'awiyah, who sent his reply to Marwan in which he said: "It is not for you nor for Usaid to pass judgements different from mine, but it is I who should pass judgements by the right of ruling I have over you. So, carry out what I've ordered you." Marwan sent to me the letter of Mu'awiyah, thereupon I said: "I'm not to pass such judgement as Mu'awiyah has passed (and leave the judgement passed by the Prophet, Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman) as long as I'm the governor."

4690- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Anyone has more right to take back his (stolen or robbed) property wherever he finds it, and the purchaser shall follow its seller."

4691- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If a woman is given in marriage by two guardians, it (the valid marriage) should be for the first of them (who has done it); and if a man buys a thing from two persons (successively), it should refer to the first of them (its real owner)."

[97] Taking Loan

4692- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Rabie'ah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took from me a loan of forty thousand Dirhams, and when money came to him he gave it back to me and said: "Might Allah bless you in your family and property. No doubt, the best reward of loan should be praise and fulfillment."

[98] The Severe Warning Of Falling In Debt

4693- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Jahsh that he said: We were sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he raised his head to the sky and then placed his palm on his forehead and said: "Glory to Allah! How severe is the warning which has been revealed (upon me)!" we became silent, and grew scared. When it was the morning of the coming day I asked him: "O Messenger of Allah! What is this severe warning which has been revealed?" he said: "By Him, in Whose Hand is my soul: if a man is killed (martyred) in Allah's Cause, then given life, then killed then given life, then killed and he was owing debt, he will not enter the Garden until his debt is fulfilled on behalf of him."

4694- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that he said: We were in a funeral procession with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he said thrice: "Is there anyone belonging to the sons of so and so?" (no reply was given to him in the first two times and after the third time) a man stood up and said: "It is I O Messenger of Allah." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What has prevented you from answering me in the previous two times? Indeed, I did not refer to you but for good. So and so, i.e. a man belonging to them died and he is being now detained (from being admitted to the Garden) on account of his debt."

[99] Facilitating Its Fulfillment

4695- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Hudhaifah that he said: Maimunah used to take loans so much, to the extent that her family talked to her about that, blamed her, and became angry with her. On that she said: I shall never cease from taking loans since I heard my bosom friend and companion "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "No man takes loan which Allah Almighty knows he has the intention to fulfill, but that Allah will fulfill it on his behalf in the world."

4696- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utbah that Maimunah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a loan, and it was said to her: "O Mother of Believers! Do you take a loan even though you have nothing to repay it?" she said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He who takes a loan and he has the intention to fulfill it, Allah Almighty helps him (fulfill it)."

[100] The Rich's Procrastination

4697- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If (the debt of) anyone of you is transferred to one who is wealthier (and more able to repay it), let him accept such transference; and (it should be known that) the procrastination of a rich one is injustice."

4698- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Ash-Sharid from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The procrastination of such as is able (to fulfill his debt) makes lawful both his honour and punishment." 4701- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Qatadah Al-Ansari from his father that a deceased man was brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to offer funeral prayer on him, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(No) for your companion has been owing a debt." Abu Qatadah said: "I guarantee to repay it." He asked him: "Do you guarantee to fulfill it?" he said: "Yes I guarantee to fulfill it."

[103] Exhortation To Repay What Is Due In Full

[104] The Good Treatment And Lenience In Demanding Debt

4703- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "There was a man (belonging to these who were before you) who did no good at all. But at the same time, he used to give loans to the people, and say to his envoy: "Take what is available, and leave what is not available, and plot out (the debt from the insolvent) perchance Allah might plot out our sins from us." When he died Allah Almighty asked him: "Have you ever done good?" he said: "No, but I had a servant, and I used to give loans to the people, and whenever I sent him to the people to take back what is due upon them, I would say to him: "Take what is available, and leave what is not available, and plot out (the debt from the insolvent) perchance Allah might plot out our sins from us." Allah Almighty said to him: "Then, I've plotted out your sins from you.""

4704- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "There was a man (belonging to these who were before you) who used to give loans to the people, and whenever he saw an insolvent one, he would say to his servant: "Leave him, perchance Allah Almighty would leave us (with no punishment)." (46) THE BOOK OF QASAMAH

(It means the collective oaths which the heirs of the suspect of committing a murder are required to take, to refute the charge from him, and we shall use the term "collective oaths" in reference to it).

[1] The Collective Oaths In The Pre-Islamic Period Of Ignorance

4715- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: "The first event of collective oaths (Qasamah) in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance was practiced by us (i.e. Banu Hashim). A man from Banu Hashim was hired by a Quraishi man from another branch-family. The (Hashimi) laborer set out with the Quraishi driving his camels. There passed by him another man from Banu Hashim. The leather rope of the latter's bag had broken so he said to the laborer: "Will you help me by giving me a rope in order to tie the handle of my bag lest the camels should run away from me?" The laborer gave him a rope and the latter tied his bag with it. When the caravan halted, all the camels' legs were tied with their fetters except one camel. The employer asked the laborer: "Why, from among all the camels has this camel not been fettered?" He replied: "There is no fetter for it." The Quraishi asked: "Where is its fetter?" he said: "There passed by me a man from Banu Hashim. The leather rope of his bag had broken so he said to me: "Will you help me by giving me a rope in order to tie the handle of my bag lest the camels should run away from me?" I gave him a rope and he tied his bag with it." The employer struck the laborer with a stick that caused his death. (Later on Just before his death) a man from Yemen passed by him. The laborer asked (him): "Will you go for the pilgrimage season this year?" He replied: "I do not think I will attend it, but perhaps I will attend it." The (Hashimi) laborer said: "Will you please convey a message from me once in your life?" The other man said: "yes." The laborer said: "When you attend the pilgrimage, call the family of Quraish, and if they respond to you, call the family of Banu Hashim, and if they respond to you, ask about Abu Talib and tell him that so-and-so has killed me for a fetter." Then the laborer expired. When the employer reached (Mecca), Abu Talib visited him and asked: "What has happened to our companion?" He said: "He became ill and I looked after him nicely (but he died) and I halted and buried him." Then Abu Talib said: "The deceased deserved this from you." After some time, the messenger whom the laborer has asked to convey the message, reached during the pilgrimage season. He called: "O the family of Quraish!" The people replied: "This is Quraish." Then he called: "O the family of Banu Hashim!" Again the people replied: "Those are Banu Hashim." He asked:

"Who is Abu Talib?" The people replied: "This is Abu Talib." He said: "So-and-so has asked me to convey a message to you that so-and-so had killed him for a fetter (of a camel)." Then Abu Talib went to the (Quraishi) killer and said to him: "Choose one of three alternatives: If you wish, give us one-hundred camels because you have murdered our companion; or if you wish, fifty of your men should take collective oaths that you have not murdered our companion, and if you do not accept this, we will kill you in implementation of the law of equality." The killer went to his people and they said: "We will take collective oaths." Then a woman from Banu Hashim who was married to one of them (i.e. the Quraishis) and had given birth to a child from him, came to Abu Talib and said: "O Abu Talib! I wish that my son from among the fifty men, should be excused from this oath, and that he should not take the oath where the oath-taking is carried on." Abu Talib excused him. Then another man from them came (to Abu Talib) and said: "O Abu Talib! You want fifty persons to take collective oaths instead of giving a hundred camels, and that means each man has to give two camels (in case he does not take an oath). So there are two camels I would like you to accept from me and excuse me from taking an oath where the oaths are taken." Abu Talib accepted them from him. Then 48 men came and took the collective oaths." Ibn Abbas further said: "By Him in Whose Hand my life is, before the end of that year, none of those 48 persons remained alive."

[2] What About The Collective Oaths Taken By The Killer's Heirs?

4716- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah and Sulaiman Ibn Yasar from one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sanctioned Qasamah (collective oaths taken by the killer's heirs to refute the claim from him) as it was during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance.

4717- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah and Sulaiman Ibn Yasar from some of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that Qasamah (collective oaths taken by the killer's heirs to refute the claim from him) was prevalent during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sanctioned it as it was and judged according to it in the case of a murdered one from the Ansar, and the Jews of Khaibar were accused of killing him.

4718- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that Qasamah (collective oaths taken by the killer's heirs to refute the claim from

[3] The Blood Claimants Take Oaths (To Affirm Their Claim)

4719- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Laila Abdullah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Ansari from Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah that Abdullah Ibn Sahl and Muhaiyyisah went out to Khaibar as they were struck with poverty and difficult living conditions. Then Muhaiyyisah was informed that Abdullah had been killed and thrown in a pit or a spring. Muhaiyyisah went to the Jews and said: "By Allah, you have killed him." The Jews said: "By Allah, we have not killed him." Muhaiyyisah then came back to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him the story. He, his elder brother Huwaiyyisah and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl went (to The Prophet) and Muhaiyyisah who had been at Khaibar, proceeded to speak, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Muhaiyyisah: "The eldest! The eldest!" meaning: "Let the eldest of you speak." Huwaiyyisah spoke first and then Muhaiyyisah,. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Jews should either pay the blood-money of your (deceased) companion or be ready for war." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote a letter to the Jews in that respect, who replied: "We, by Allah, did not kill him." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Huwaiyyisah, Muhaiyyisah, and Abd Ar-Rahman: "Can you take (fifty) collective oaths by which you will have the right to take the blood-money?" They said: "No." He said : "Shall we ask the Jews to take (fifty) collective oaths (to deny the charge) before you?" They replied: "But the Jews are not Muslims." So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave them the blood money from his own property. He sent to them one hundred she-camels, which were made to enter the house. Sahl said: A red she-camel from among them kicked me.

[4] The Different Citation-Forms Of Sahl's Narration

4721- It is narrated on the authority of Both Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah and Rafi' Ibn Khadij that they said: Abdullah Ibn Sahl Ibn Zaid and Muhaiyyisah Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid set out together, and when they reached Khaibar, they parted and later on, Muhaiyyisah came upon Abdullah Ibn Sahl and found him murdered. He buried him and (returned to Medina and) he, Huwaiyyisah Ibn Mas'ud and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, who was the youngest of them, came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abd Ar-Rahman intended to talk before his two companions, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." He kept silent and the other two spoke, and he spoke after them. They mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl, whereupon he said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" They said: "How could we swear if we did not witness (the murder or the murderer)?" Huwayyisah spoke about the matter of the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" They said: "How could we swear if we did not witness (the murder) and we were not present?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge by taking fifty oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "How should we believe in the oaths of infidels?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own property. Bushair Ibn Yasar said: Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah told me: One of those she-camels (given as the blood-wet) kicked me in a fold.

4726- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah that Abdullah Ibn Sahl was found as killed (in Khaibar). His brother and his paternal uncles, Muhiyyisah and Huwayyisah, and they were the paternal uncles of Abdullah Ibn Sahl, went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abd Ar-Rahman (who was the youngest of them) intended to talk, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." The other two said: "O Messenger of Allah! We found Abdullah Ibn Sahl being killed and thrown in one of the wells of Khaibar." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Whom do you accuse (of killing him)?" they said: "We accuse the Jews (of killing him)." He said: "Would you take fifty oaths that the Jews had killed him?" They said: "How could we take oath on something which we did not see (with our own eyes)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge by taking fifty oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "How should we believe in the oaths of the Jews since they are pagans?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own property.

4727- It is narrated on the authority of Bushair Ibn Yasar that Abdullah Ibn Sahl Al-Ansari and Muhiyyisah Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid set out together, and when they reached Khaibar, they parted for their needs, and later on, Abdullah Ibn Sahl Al-Ansari was murdered. Muhiyyisah came back (to Medina) and he, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, the brother of the murdered, and Huwayyisah Ibn Mas'ud came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abd Ar-Rahman (who was the youngest of them) intended to talk on account of the fact that the murdered was his brother, , but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." Both Muhaiyyisah and Huwaiyyisah spoke about the matter of the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" Bushair pretended that (when they refused to swear on what they saw not, and further did not accept the oaths of the Jews of refuting the charge) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own property.

4728- It is narrated on the authority of Bushair Ibn Yasar Al-Ansari from one from amongst the Ansar called Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah that some of them set out to Khaibar, wherein they parted. Later on, they found one of them being murdered thereupon they said to those in whose dwellings they found their murdered companion: "You have killed our companion." They said: "We neither killed him, nor did we know his murderer." They went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! We went to Khaibar and found one of us having been killed." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then asked them to bring about evidence against such as killed him, but they told him that they had no evidence. He said: "Then, let them take an oath for you (to clear themselves from your charge)." They said: "We do not accept the oaths of the Jews." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked that his blood should be wasted, so, he paid one hundred camels from those given in charity as his blood-wit.

4729- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that the younger son of Muhaiyyisah was killed at the gates of Khaibar. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring about two witnesses against his killer, and I would hand him over to you." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should I bring about two witnesses since he was killed at their gates?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, take fifty oaths (as to who has killed him)." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should I take oath on that which I know not?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, let's ask them to have fifty take oaths (to refute the claim from themselves)." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should we ask them to swear (and how should we accept their oaths) since they are the Jews (who always tell lies)?" The Messenger of 4735- It is narrated on the authority of Wa'il Ibn Hujr that he said: I was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a killer tied with a leather string in his neck was brought to him. He (the blood claimant) said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man and my brother were digging a well, when he lifted a mattock therewith he struck his head and killed him." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Forgive him." He rejected and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man and my brother were digging a well, when he lifted a mattock therewith he struck his head and killed him." He said: "Forgive him." He rejected. He then stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man and my brother were digging a well, when he lifted a mattock therewith he struck his head and killed him." He said: "Forgive him." He rejected. He then said: "Go (to do so) but (to be sure) if you kill him, you will be like him (in sin particularly in case he was true to his statement that he killed him by mistake and not intentionally)." When he went far we called him: "Have you not heard the statement of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he returned and asked: "Will I be like him (in sin) if I kill him?" he answered in the affirmative thereupon he said: "Then, I forgive him." He (the killer) came out dragging his leather string (on the ground) until he disappeared from our sights.

4736- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Wa'il from his father that he was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man brought another whom he was leading with a leather string and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man killed my brother." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Have you really killed him?" he (the blood claimant) said: "O Messenger of Allah! If he does not confess, I'm ready to bring about evidence against him." He (the killer) said: "Yes, I've killed him." He (the Prophet) asked: "How have you killed him?" he said: "He and I were cutting off fire wood from a tree when he insulted me and provoked my anger, thereupon I struck the side of his head with the mattock (and he died immediately)." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Have you got property to pay the blood-money for yourself?" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have got no property other than my mattock and dress." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you think your people are ready to ransom you?" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm too insignificant in the sight of my people to do so for me." He then threw the leather string to the man (the blood claimant) and said: "Take the man (and kill him)." When he turned away the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! If he kills him, he will be like him (in sin since he seemed to have killed by mistake)." The people caught him and said: "Woe to you! the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" says that 'If he kills him, he will be like him (in sin)'." He returned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I was informed that you said 'If he kills him, he will be like him (in sin)'. Have I taken him (to kill him) but by your command?" he asked: "Do you not like that he should draw upon himself his sin and the sin of his companion (whom he has killed)?" he answered in the affirmative. He said: "Then, (if you forgive him) this will be so." He said: "if it is so, then, I've forgiven him."

4737- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Wa'il from his father that he said: While I was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a man brought another whom he was leading with a leather string...and the rest is the same.

4738- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Wa'il that his father told them that a murderer was brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", whom he handed over to the blood claimant in order to kill him. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to his sitters: "Both the killer and the killed will be

I saw him dragging his leather string on the ground when he let him go. When I made a mention of that to Habib he said: Sa'id Ibn Ashwa' related to me the same, and told me that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to forgive him.

4739- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: An heir of a killed man brought the killer to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Forgive him." But he rejected. He further asked him to accept the blood-money, but he refused. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Go and kill him: indeed, (if you do so) you will be like him (in the sin of killing for the killer pretended he had no real intention to kill the deceased)." He (the heir of the deceased) was caught up with and it was said to him: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "indeed, (if you do so) you will be like him (in the sin of killing)." Then, he released him. While he was going to his family, he came upon me dragging a leather string (with which the deceased's heir was tying him).

4740- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that a man came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "This man has killed my brother." He said to him: "Go and kill him as he has killed your brother." He (the murderer) said: "Fear Allah, and forgive me, for this will be more rewardable and much better for you and your brother on the Day of Judgement." He then released him. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was informed of that he asked him, and he told him of what he had said to him. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reproached him (the killer) saying: "Behold! It (killing you in the world) would have been much better than what he would come to do with you on the Day of Judgement, saying: 'O Lord! Ask this man for which thing he had killed me'."

[7] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: " If you Judge, Judge In Equity Between Them. For Allah Loves Those Who Judge In Equity"

4741- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: (There was dispute between the Jews of) Quraizhah and An-Nadir during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and the tribe of An-Nadir had power over those of Quraizhah. The result was that if one of Quraizhah killed another from An-Nadir, he should be killed by him in retaliation, and if one from the tribe of

An-Nadir killed one from those of Quraizhah, he would not be killed by him in retaliation, but, he would be ransomed by one hundred Wasaqs (each equal to sixty Sa's) of dates. It happened that one from amongst the Nadir tribe killed one from amongst the Quraizhah, after the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had been sent as a Prophet. They (the heirs) said: "Bring him (the killer) to us, so that we would kill him (for our murdered one)." They replied: "Let's appeal to the Prophet to judge between us." They went to him (to judge between them), thereupon Allah Almighty revealed: "If you judge, judge in equity between them. For Allah loves those who judge in equity." (Al-Ma'idah 42) Then He Almighty further said: "Do they then seek after a judgment of (the Days of) Ignorance?" (Al-Ma'idah 50)

[8] The Different Citation-Forms Of Ikrimah's Narration

4742- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The following was revealed concerning the blood-money between the Jews of Nadir and Quraizhah: "If they do come to you, either judge between them, or decline to interfere... If you judge, judge in equity between them. For Allah loves those who judge in equity." (Al-Ma'idah 42) it was the habit that whenever anyone of the Nadir people killed anyone of the Quraizhah, they should pay no more than half the blood-money; and whenever anyone of the Quraizhah people killed anyone of the Nadir, they should pay the blood-money in full. They appealed to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to judge between them, thereupon Allah Almighty revealed the previous Holy statement. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forced them to follow the truth in that matter, when he made the blood-money equal between them.

4743- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Ubad that he said: I and Al-Ashtar went to Ali and asked him: "Has the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" confided to you anything he has not confided to anyone else?" he said: "No, barring what this document of mine contains." He brought out a document from the sheath of his sword, and it had the following: "All the Muslims are equal in their blood; and they should (intimately gather and help one another like the) one hand against their enemies; and even the one belonging to the lowest social status among them has the claim to give the right of protection (to whomever he likes, and it should be respected by all of them). is semi-intentionally killed by mistake with a whip or a stick is one hundred expensive camels, forty of which should be pregnant."

4809- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim Ibn Rabie'ah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! (The blood-money of) the murdered who is semi-intentionally killed by mistake i.e. with a whip or a stick is one hundred camels, forty of which should be seven-to-nine-year old pregnant."

4810- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who is killed by mistake, his blood-money should be one hundred camels: thirty one-year-old she-camels, thirty two-year-old she-camels, thirty three-year-old she-camels, and ten two-year-old he-camels." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" estimated it as four hundred Dinars (of gold) or what is equal to that from (Dirhams of) silver for the town residents; and this amount differed in accordance with the difference of the prices of camels from time to time: when the price was high, the amount would increase, and when it was low, it would decrease. In this way, it (the blood-money) was between four hundred and eight hundred Dinars (of gold) or what is equal from (Dirhams of) silver, i.e. eight thousand Dirhams during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Furthermore, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that if one's blood-wet should be paid from cows, two hundred cows would be due upon the owners of cows; and if one's blood-wet should be paid from sheep, two thousand sheep would be due upon the owners of sheep. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the blood-wet is a part of the heritage, which should go to the heirs of him (the deceased), according to the closeness of kinship, and what remains should go to such of his kinship as from the side of his father (who have no obligatory shares in the heritage, but they always inherit what remains of the shares)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that the woman's blood-wet is due upon her relatives from the side of her father, who have no obligatory shares of inheritance but what remains out of the shares of her heirs; and if a woman is killed, her blood-money should go to her heirs, upon whom it is due to kill her murderer (if they so like)."

Furthermore, the forbiddance of throwing with pebbles is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal.

4825- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal that he saw a man throwing pebbles, thereupon he said to him: "Do not throw pebbles for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (or disliked) throwing pebbles.

Later on, the woman against whom he passed this judgement died, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that her heritage should go to her children and husband, and the blood-wet due upon her should be paid by the close relatives from the side of her father.

4828- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Two women from Hudhail fought with each other, one of whom threw the other with a stone that killed her and what was in her womb. They (i.e. the relatives of the killer and the relatives of the victim) filed their case to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who judged that the blood-money for the fetus was a slave or a slave girl, and the blood-money for the killed woman was to be paid by the killer's relatives from the side of her father. He made her son and those with him her heirs. Hamal Ibn An-Nabighah Al-Hudhali said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why should I pay blood money for one who neither drank, nor ate, nor spoke, nor cried (after miscarriage by which it would be known that he died after he was alive). It is like a nonentity (which deserves no blood-money)." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He seems to be one of the brothers of soothsayers" and this was in view of the rhymed speech he composed."

4864- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakr Ibn Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Hazm from his father from his grandfather that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote a document to the people of Yemen, including the obligatory and supererogatory deeds and shares, blood-wets, and then he sent it with Amr Ibn Hazm, and it was recited before the people of Yemen as follows: "From Muhammad, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same with the following addition: "Half the blood-money should be due for (causing damage to) one eye; half the blood-money should be due for (cutting off) a hand; half the blood-money should be due for (cutting off) a foot." Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says: This is more right.

4865- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab that he said: I read the document written by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Amr Ibn Hazm when he sent him as the governor of Najran, and the document was with Abu Bakr Ibn Hazm. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote the following: "This is a clear evidence from Allah and His Messenger: 'O you who believe! Fulfill (all) obligations... for Allah is swift in taking account.'" (Al-Ma'idah 1:4) then he wrote: "This is a document of (the blood-money of) wounds: (The blood-money of killing) a soul is one hundred camels...and the rest is the same.

4866- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri that he said: Abu Bakr Ibn Hazm brought to me a document written in a piece of skin from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with the following: "This is a clear evidence from Allah and His Messenger: 'O you who believe! Fulfill (all) obligations... for Allah is swift in taking account.'" (An-Nisa 1:4) then he said: "(The blood-money for killing) a soul is one hundred camels; (for impairing) the eye is fifty camels; (for cutting off) a hand is fifty camels; (for cutting off) a foot is fifty camels; (for causing) a deep head-wound, (that penetrates the skin to the bone of the skull) one-third the blood-money is due; (for causing) a sharp acute pierce (which penetrates the skin inside any part of the body), one-third the blood-money is due; (for causing) a bone-displacing wound, fifteen camels are due; and (for cutting off) each finger or toe ten camels are due; and (for breaking) a tooth five camels are due; and (for) a bone-uncovering wound five camels are due."

4867- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakr Ibn Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Hazm that he said: The book written by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Amr Ibn Hazm concerning the blood-wets goes as follows: "(the blood-money for killing) a soul (of a human being) that is slain (by mistake) is one hundred camels; if the nose is

4868- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that a desert Arab came to the door of (the house of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and peeped through the opening of the door with his eyes. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw him, he turned a piece of iron or a stick towards him in order to gouge out his eyes. When he (the Bedouin) saw him, he returned his sight. On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Had you kept peeping, I would have gouged out your eyes."

4869- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi that he said: A man peeped through a round hole into the dwelling place of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who had an iron comb with which he was scratching his head. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: " Had I known that you were looking (through the hole), I would have pierced your eye with it (the comb)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Verily! The order of taking permission to enter (somebody's dwelling) has been enjoined because of that sight."

[48] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: " If A Man Kills A Believer Intentionally, His Recompense Is Hell, To Abide Therein "

4873- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abza told me to ask Ibn Abbas about the following statement: " If a man kills a Believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell, to abide therein (forever)", (An-Nisa ⁹³) and when I asked him he said: "Nothing abrogated it." He also told me to ask him about the following statement: " Those who invoke not, with Allah, any other god, nor slay such life as Allah has made sacred, except for just cause, nor commit fornication, and any that does this (not only) meets punishment" (Al-Furqan ⁶⁸) and when I asked him he said: "It was revealed in connection with the pagans."

4874- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: The people of Kufah differed about the (significance of) the following statement: " If a man kills a Believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell, to abide therein (forever)", (An-Nisa ⁹³) and I set out to Ibn Abbas and asked him and he said: "It was the latest to be revealed, and nothing abrogated it."

4875- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Abbas: "Is there repentance (to be accepted from) such as kills a faithful believer intentionally?" he answered in the negative. I recited to him the following Holy Verse from the Surah of Al-Furqan: " Those who invoke not, with Allah, any other god, nor slay such life as Allah has made sacred, except for just cause, nor commit fornication, and any that does this (not only) meets punishment" (⁶⁸) he said: "This is a Meccan Holy Verse which was abrogated by a Medinian Verse: " If a man kills a Believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell, to abide therein (forever)." (Women ⁹³)

4876- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he was asked about such as kills a faithful believer intentionally, and then he repents, makes amends, and follows the right guidance. He said: "How should his

They (the claimants) went to him once again and said: "You've released them with no beating nor putting them to trial." An-Nu'man said to them: "As you like: if you so like, I would beat them: if your things appear with them, it will be alright, otherwise, I will beat you on your backs just as I will have beaten them on their backs."

He has only committed theft." He said: "Then, cut off his hand." He committed theft once again, and his leg was cut off (after cutting off both his hands). He committed theft during the time of (the caliphate of) Abu Bakr until all his limbs were cut off. On that Abu Bakr said: "Of a surety, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had best knowledge of that when he ordered that he should be killed." He handed him over to some young men belonging to the Quraish people in order to kill him, including Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair, who used to like chieftaincy. 4988 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ عَقِيلٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا جَدِّي قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُضْعَبُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُثَنَّدِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: جِيءَ بِسَارِقٍ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «أَقْتُلُوهُ» فَقَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّمَا سَرَقَ قَالَ: «أَقْطَعُوهُ» فَقُطِعَ ثُمَّ جِيءَ بِهِ الثَّانِيَةَ فَقَالَ: «أَقْتُلُوهُ» فَقَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّمَا سَرَقَ. قَالَ: «أَقْطَعُوهُ» فَقُطِعَ فَاتِي بِهِ الثَّالِثَةَ فَقَالَ: «أَقْتُلُوهُ» قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّمَا سَرَقَ فَقَالَ: «أَقْطَعُوهُ»

They attacked him for the second time, and he did the same. They attacked him for the third time, and we then threw him with the stones and killed him, and threw him in a well, and placed stones over his body. (The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not order that he should be killed only because of his committing theft, but because he caused mischief in the land, and behaved like the renegades from Islam).

4998- It is narrated on the authority of Anas from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "Whoever possesses the following three qualities will have the sweetness of faith: The one who loves anyone and he loves him only in (the religion of) Allah Almighty, to whom Allah Almighty and His Apostle become dearer than anything else, to whom it is better to be thrown into fire than to revert to infidelity after Allah Almighty had rescued him from it."

[4] The Sweetness Of Islam

4999- It is narrated on the authority of Anas from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "Whoever possesses the following three qualities will have the sweetness of Islam: The one to whom Allah Almighty and His Apostle become dearer than anything else, who loves (anyone) and he loves him only in (the religion of) Allah Almighty, and who hates to revert to infidelity in the same way as he hates to be thrown into the fire."

[5] The Essence Of Islam

5000- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab told me: One day we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", when there appeared before us a man, wearing very white clothes, having very deep black hair, on whom, there were no traces of journey. Furthermore, none amongst us recognized him. He sat with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He knelt in front of him, with his palms on his (the stranger's) thighs and said: "O Muhammad, tell me: what is Islam?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Islam is to testify that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah, to establish the (obligatory) prayer, practice the regular charity, observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan, and perform pilgrimage to the House in case you are able to do." He said: "You have told the truth." However, we were astonished that he raised the question and, at the same time, confirmed that it (the answer) was true. He said: "Tell me: what is faith?" He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers, The Day of Judgment, and the fate, be it good or evil." He said: "You are true." Then, He said: "Tell me what faithfulness is?" He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him, putting in mind that even though you don't see Him, He sees you." He said: "Tell me about The Doomed hour." He (The Prophet) commented: "The one who was asked knows no more than the one who asked." He said: "Tell me some of its portents." He (The Prophet) answered: "(Some of its portents are): That the slave-girl will give birth to her mistress and master, that you will find barefooted, destitute goat herds (so much wealthy that they will be) competing one another in constructing the great huge buildings." Three days later, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "O Umar, do you know who this asker was?" I replied: "Allah and His Messenger know best." He commented: "He was (the angel) Gabriel "Peace be upon him", who came in order to teach you the matters of your religion."

[6] The Essence Of Faith And Islam

5001- It is narrated on the authority of both Abu Hurairah and Abu Dharr that they said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to have his seat among his companions, and whenever a stranger came, he would not recognize him (from among them) until he would ask about him. We asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to fix a sitting place for him, so that any stranger would recognize him once he came. We then build a high-grade of mud for him and he sat on it. One day, while we were sitting, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting, there came a man, having the prettiest face among the people, and the most pleasant smell among the people, and his garment was (as clean) as if no dirt affected it. He paid salutation while being at the end of the gathering saying: "Peace be upon you O Muhammad." He returned the greeting to him. He asked: "Might I come closer O Muhammad?" he said: "Yes, you might come closer." He kept asking for coming closer and he (the Prophet) kept replying in the affirmative so many times until he became so much close that he placed his hands on the knees of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: "O Muhammad! Tell me: What is Islam?" He (The Prophet) answered: "Islam is to worship Allah and not associate anything with Him, to establish the obligatory prayers, to practice the regular charity, to perform Hajj to the House, and to observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan." He said: "If I do so, should I become a Muslim?" he answered in the affirmative. He said: "You have told the truth." When we heard the statement of the man 'You've told the truth' we regarded it (his conduct) as something strange. He asked (once again): "O Muhammad! Tell me: What is faith?" He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, the Messengers, and the Fate in full." He said: "If I do so, should I become a faithful believer?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered in the affirmative. He said: "You have told the truth." He asked: "O Muhammad! Tell me: What is faithfulness?" He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him. Indeed, if you are unable to feel that you see Him, you should put in mind that He sees you." The man said: "You are true." He asked: "O Muhammad! Tell me: When would the doomed hour be?" he turned down, and gave no answer. He repeated the question, but he (the Prophet) gave no answer. He repeated the question (for the third time) but he (the Prophet) gave no answer. Then, he (The Prophet) raised his head and said: "The one who was asked has no better knowledge of it than the inquirer. But, there will be many portents for it: When you see the shepherds of the beasts competing in (constructing the huge) buildings, (this is one of its portents). When you see the naked, barefooted, ignorant, foolish persons turning to be the rulers of the earth, (this is one of its portents). When you see the slave-girl giving birth to her owner, (this is one of its portents). (The Hour) is one of the five unseen events which no one knows but Allah." Then he (The Messenger of Allah) recited (Allah's saying): "Verily the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah (alone). It is He Who knows rain, and He Who knows what is in the wombs.

(6) - صِفَةُ الْإِيمَانِ وَالْإِسْلَامِ

5001 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ قُدَّامَةَ عَنْ جَرِيرٍ عَنْ أَبِي فَرْوَةَ عَنْ أَبِي زُرْعَةَ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ وَأَبِي دَرٍّ قَالَا: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَجْلِسُ بَيْنَ ظَهْرَانِي أَصْحَابِهِ فَيَجِيءُ الْغَرِيبُ فَلَا يَذَرِي أَيُّهُمْ هُوَ حَتَّى يَسْأَلَ فَطَلَبْنَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ نَجْعَلَ

He was Gabriel "Peace be upon him" and he descended (from the heaven) in the form of Dihyah Al-Kalbi."

[7] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: "The Desert Arabs Say: 'We Believe.' Say: 'You Have No Faith, But You (Only) Say, 'We Have Submitted Our Wills To Allah (In Islam)'"

5002- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas) from his father that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed some property amongst a group of people, and left someone of them, thereupon he said: "O Allah's Apostle! You've given so and so, and so and so, but you have given nothing to that person, even though he is a faithful believer." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "Or merely a Muslim." He repeated his suggestion thrice, and he (The Prophet) repeated his reply "Or nearly a Muslim" thrice. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Sa'd! I give men (to habituate their hearts for fear of reverting to disbelief) even though I leave another who is dearer to me, for fear that he might be thrown (prone) on his face into the Fire (of Hell by Allah Almighty)."

5003- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas) from his father that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed some property amongst a group of people, and left someone of them, thereupon I said: "O Allah's Apostle! You've given so and so, and so and so, but you have given nothing to that person, even though he is a faithful believer." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not say 'he is really a faithful believer', but you might say 'Or He is merely a Muslim'." Ibn Shihab said: (Allah says) "The desert Arabs say: "We believe." Say: "You have no Faith, but you (only) say, 'We have submitted our wills to Allah (in Islam)'." (Al-Hujurat ¹⁴)

5004- It is narrated on the authority of Bishr Ibn Suhaim that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to make a public announcement among the people during the days of Tashriq that none but a faithful believer will enter the Garden; and those days are days of eating and drinking.

[8] The Nature Of A Faithful Believer

5005- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "The Muslim (who submits his will to Allah's Will) is that, from (the evil of) whose tongue and hand the people are safe; and the faithful believer is such as people trusts on their blood and property."

[9] The Nature Of A Muslim

5006- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "The Muslim (who submits his will to Allah's Will) is that, from (the evil of) whose tongue and hand the Muslims are safe; and the Emigrant is such as forsakes what Allah Almighty forbids."

5007- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who offers prayer like us, faces our Qiblah (in prayer), and slaughters (animals) as we slaughter (according to Islamic law), is really the true Muslim."

[10] One's Good Islam

5008- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one embraces Islam, and his (conversion into) Islam proves good, Allah Almighty will write for him every good deed he has done, and erase from him every evil deed he has committed, and after that, there will remain the requital in such a way that every good deed will be rewarded by ten to seven hundred times the like of it, and every evil deed will be requited by only the like of it, unless Allah Almighty lets off it."

[11] Which (Of The Muslims Whose) Islam Is The Best?

5010- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that a man asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Which (deed in) Islam is the best?" he said: "It is to serve food (to the needy and indigent), and greet with peace such as you know and you know not."

5011- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that a man asked him: "Are you not going to take part in the holy battles?" he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Islam is based upon five principles: to bear testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, to establish (the obligatory) prayer, to practice the regular charity, to perform Hajj, and to observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan."

5013- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I have been ordered (by Allah) to fight people until they bear testimony to the fact that there is no God (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Apostle of Allah. If they bear testimony to the fact that there is no God (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Apostle of Allah, pray like us, face our Qiblah, and slaughter as we slaughter (the animal according to Islamic law on which Allah's name should be mentioned) then their blood and property would be kept (as being sacred) from us except legally (within the rights of law), and they would further have the same rights as the Muslims have and bear the same obligations as the Muslims bear."

[18] The Increase Of Faith

5020- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(When Allah Almighty will have delivered the faithful believers from the fire) anyone of you has no stronger argument while he is on the right in this world (with his companion) than they will have by then with their Lord, concerning their (disobedient) brothers, who will still be in the fire. They will say: "O Lord! Those are our brothers, who used to offer prayers with us, observe fasts with us, and perform Hajj with us, and (in spite of that) You have admitted them to the fire (of Hell)." Allah will say: "Go and take out (of Hell) whomever you recognize of them." They will come and recognize them by their faces, since the fire will never eat up faces. From amongst those (in the fire), there will be such as burnt by the fire to the half of his legs, and such as burnt to his heels. They will then bring them out (of the

There is a verse in your Holy Book Which is read by all of you (Muslims), and had it been revealed to us, we would have taken that day (on which it was revealed) as a day of celebration." Umar asked: "What is that verse?" The Jew replied: "This day I have perfected your religion for you, completed my favour upon you, and have chosen for you Islam as your religion." (The Repast "Al-Ma'idah" 3) Umar replied: "No doubt, I know when and where this verse was revealed. It was revealed unto The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was standing at Arafat (That is the Day of Hajj) on Friday."

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "After me, you will find others being given preference over you: so, keep patient until you meet me on the Fount-lake."

[6] Appointing Poets On Jobs

5396- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair that a delegate from Banu Tamim came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon Abu Bakr said: "Appoint Al-Qa'qa' Ibn Ma'bad as their chief." Umar said: "No, appoint Al-Aqra' Ibn Habis as their chief." Both fell in argumentation until their voices grew louder (in the presence of The Messenger of Allah). In connection with that the following was revealed: "O you who believe! put not yourselves forward before Allah and His Messenger; but fear Allah: for Allah is He Who hears and knows all things. O you who believe! raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet, nor speak aloud to him in talk, as you may speak aloud to one another, lest your deeds become vain and you perceive not... If only they had patience until you could come out to them, it would be best for them: but Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Al-Hujurat 1: 5)

On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "how good is that! Which children do you have?" he said: "I have Shuraih, Muslim and Abdullah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned Al-Fadl's face to the other side. The woman said: "O Allah's Apostle! The obligation of Hajj enjoined by Allah on His devotees has become due on my father who is old and weak, and cannot sit firm on the Mount: may I perform Hajj on his behalf?" [12] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: " If Any Do Fail To Judge By (The Light Of) What Allah Has Revealed, They Are (No Better Than) Unbelievers"

5410- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: After (the death of) Jesus "Peace be upon him" there came kings who changed both Torah and Gospel. But at the same time, there were faithful believers, who recited the Torah (as it should be recited with no change). It was said to their king: "We find nothing more offensive to us than that with which those (believers) insult us when they recite: " If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah has revealed, they are (no better than) Unbelievers" in addition to those statements, and such of faults as they find with us as shown in their recital: so, invite them, and ask them to recite in the same way as we recite, and believe in the same way as we believe." He (the king) invited them, and offered to them either to kill them or to leave their way of reciting the Torah and Gospel, and accept the changes they made in it. They said to them: "What is that which you like us to do? Let us!" a sect of them said: "Build a cylinder-shaped edifice and let's live in it, and provide us with an instrument therewith to get our food and drink, and thus we would never come back to you (and you would consequently hear nothing harmful to you from us)." Another sect said: "Let's wander in the land and drink in the same way as a wild animal drinks, and if you have power over us within the limits of your land, then kill us (if you so like)." A third sect of them said: "Build places of worship for us in the desert, and let's dig wells and cultivate grains, so that we would never come back to you nor pass by you once again"; and there is none of the tribes but that he has a friend therein. They did accordingly. On that occasion Allah Almighty revealed: " but the Monasticism which they invented for themselves, We did not prescribe for them: (We commanded) only the seeking for the Good Pleasure of Allah; but that they did not foster as they should have done." (Al-Hadid 27) the others said: "Let's worship (Allah) in the same way as so and so does, and wander in the land in the same way as so and so does, and take houses just as so and so does", even though they are still on their paganism, having no knowledge of the faith of those whom they followed. When Allah Almighty sent The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as the Prophet, and only a few of those remained, a man came down from his monastery, another from his wandering, and a third from his church, and they believed in him, and had trust (in what he said). In connection with this Allah Almighty says: "O you that believe! Fear Allah, and believe in His Messenger, and He will bestow on you a double portion of His Mercy (one

[13] Passing Judgement Depending Upon What Seems To Be Evident

5411- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You appeal to me to judge between you, and I'm but a human being (who does not know the unseen), and perhaps, some of you might be more expressive in his argument than the others. So, if I pass a judgement therewith I give anyone the right of his brother, let not him take it, for in fact I give him a piece of fire."

[14] Passing Judgement Depending Upon The Judge's Knowledge

5412- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There were two women, each of whom had a child with her. A wolf came and took away the child of one of them, whereupon the other said: "It has taken your child." The first said: "No, it has taken your child." So they both carried the case before David who judged that the living child be given to the elder lady. So both of them went to Solomon Ibn David and informed him (of the case). He said: "Bring me a knife so as to cut the child into two pieces and distribute it between them." The younger lady said: "May Allah be merciful to you! Don't do that, for it is her (The other lady's) child." So he gave the child to the younger lady."

5413- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Two women set out, and they had two children belonging to them. A wolf attacked one of them, and took away her child. they both appealed to David to judge between them over the remaining child. David judged that the living child be given to the elder lady. Then, both of them came upon Solomon Ibn David who asked them about their story, and when they informed him (of the case), he said: "Bring me a knife so as to cut the child into two pieces and distribute it between them." The younger lady said: "Are you really going to cut the child into two pieces?" he answered in the affirmative. She said: "Don't do that,

[16] When A Judge Repeals The Judgement Of Another Judge

5414- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Two women set out, and they had two children belonging to them. A wolf took away one of them. they both appealed to the Prophet David "Peace be upon him" to judge between them over the remaining child. David judged that the living child be given to the elder lady. Then, both of them came upon Solomon Ibn David who asked them: "How has he (David) judged between you?" they said: "He gave the child to the elder lady." He said: "Let me cut the child into two halves and give a half to one and a half to the other." The elder lady said: "Yes, cut it." The younger lady said: "Do not cut it, for it is her son." He then gave it to such as refused to cut it.

[17] The Reply To A Judge When He Passes A Wrong Judgement

5415- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Khalid Ibn Al-Walid to Banu Jadhimah. Khalid invited them to Islam but they could not express themselves by saying: "We have embraced Islam," but they started saying: "we have come out of one religion to another." (Misunderstood their statement) Khalid went on killing (some of) them and taking (some of) them as captives and gave every one of us his Captive. One day, Khalid ordered that each man (of Muslim soldiers) should kill his captive. I said: "By Allah, I will not kill my captive, and none of my companions will kill his captive." When we reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we mentioned to him the whole story. On that, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised both his hands and said twice: "O Allah! I am free from what Khalid has done."

[18] What Should A Judge Avoid?

5416- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakrah that he said: My father sent a letter which I wrote for him, to Ubaidullah Ibn Abu Bakrah who was the judge of Sijistan, in which he said: "Do not judge between two persons while you are in the state of anger, for I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Let none judge between two persons while he is in the state of anger.""

[19] The Concession For An Honest Judge To Pass Judgement While Being In The State Of Anger

5417- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair from Az-Zubair Ibn Al-Awwam that Az-Zubair quarreled with an Ansari man who attended the holy battle of Badr with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the Harrah Canals which were used for irrigating the date-palms. The Ansari man said to Az-Zubair: "Let the water pass." but Az-Zubair refused to do so. So, the case was brought before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to Az-Zubair: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then let the water pass to your neighbour." On that the Ansari got angry and said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Is it for he (Zubair) is your aunt's son?" On that the colour of the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed (because of anger) and he said: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then withhold the water till it reaches the walls between the pits round the trees." So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave Zubair his full right. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had previously given an order that was in favor of both of them. But after the Ansari had provoked the anger of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he enabled Az-Zubair to take his right in full. Zubair said: "By Allah, I think that the following verse was revealed on this occasion": "But no, by your Lord, they can have no (real) Faith, until they make you judge in all disputes between them, and find in their souls no resistance against your decisions, but accept them with the fullest conviction." (An-Nisa 65)

[20] A Judge Passes Judgement In His House

5418- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Ka'b (Ibn Malik) from Ka'b that he asked Ibn Abu Hadrad to pay the debts which he owed to him and their voices grew louder. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard that while he was in his house. So he came to them raising the curtain of his room and said: "O Ka'b!" he replied: "I'm responding to your call O Allah's Apostle!" He said: "O Ka'b! reduce your debt" and he beckoned to a half. He said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have done so." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to the other (Ibn Abu Hadrad): "Get up and pay the debt to him."

I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and instigated him to take my right from the man, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent somebody to bring the man, and when he was brought he asked him: "What has caused you to do what you've done?" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! He entered my field and picked up and rubbed from its ears." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You neither instructed him when he was ignorant (of the fact that he has only what falls down from the branches), nor did you give him food when he was hungry (or given to starvation). Give him back his garment!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that a Wasaq or half a Wasaq of food be given to me.

[22] Keeping Women Away From The Assembly Of Judgement

5420- It is narrated on the authority of Both Abu Hurairah and Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani that they said: Two men came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and one of them said: "Judge between us according to Allah's Laws." His opponent, who was more learnt than him, got up and said: "Well, judge between us according to Allah's Laws and excuse me to speak." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You would speak." He said: "My son was a labourer working for this man, with whose wife he committed illegal sexual intercourse. The people told me that my son should be stoned to death; so, in lieu of that, I paid a ransom of one hundred sheep and a slave-girl to save my son. Then I asked the learned scholars who said: "Your son has to be whipped one hundred lashes and exiled for one year, and that stoning to death is due upon the wife of this man." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my life is! I will judge between you according to Allah's Laws. The slave-girl and the sheep are to go back to you." He gave his son one hundred lashes and sentenced him to one-year exile. He ordered Unais to go to the wife of this (man and said to him) "And if she confessed (of committing adultery) stone her to death." When she confessed (of committing adultery), he stoned her to death.

5421- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah, Zaid Ibn Khalid and Shibl that they said: We were with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man came to him and said: "O Allah's apostle! I beseech you by Allah to judge between us (him and his opponent) according to Allah's Laws." His opponent, who was more learned than him, stood and said: "Yes, he (my opponent) has told the truth: judge between us according to Allah's Laws, and allow me to speak." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Speak." He said: "My son was working as a labourer for this (man) and he committed adultery with his wife. (In lieu of stoning my son to death) I ransomed my son by paying one hundred sheep and a slave-girl. (He seemed to have been told that his son should be stoned to death). Then I asked the religious scholars about it, and they informed me that my son must be whipped one hundred lashes, and be exiled for one year." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose Hands my soul is, I will judge between you according to Allah's Laws. The slave-girl and the sheep are to be returned to you, your son is to receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for one year. You, Unais, go in the morning to the wife of this (man) and if she confesses her guilt, stone her to death." He went to that woman next morning and she confessed her guilt and he stoned her to death.

[23] The Judge Sends Somebody To Execute The Legal Punishment On Such As Is Reported To Commit Adultery

5422- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah Ibn Sahl Ibn Hunaif that he said: A woman was brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and she had committed adultery. He asked her: "With whom have you committed adultery?" she said: "With the disabled one who is in the dwelling place of Sa'd." he sent somebody to bring him, and he was brought as carried and placed in front of him. When he confessed (his guilt) Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked for a date-palm leaf stalk therewith he struck him (one hundred times) though lightly with clemency in view of his old age and sickness.

[24] The Ruler Proceeds Towards Such Of His Subjects As Are In Dispute To Make Peace Between Them

5423- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi that he said: There was a quarrel between two Ansari groups, which developed into throwing each other with stones. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to make peace between them. At the same time, the prayer was due, and Bilal pronounced Adhan for prayer and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was expected to come back, but he seemed to have delayed. He (Bilal) established the prayer and Abu Bakr moved forward to lead the prayer. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came back while Abu Bakr was leading the prayer.

When the people saw him (the Prophet) they clapped their hands. It was the habit of Abu Bakr not to turn sideways during his prayer, but when he heard them clapping their hands, he turned and behold! Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was there. When he intended to move backward (so that the Prophet would come forward to lead the prayer) he beckoned to him to remain in his place, but he raised his hands (praising Allah Almighty for the honour given to him by the Prophet) and retreated, and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came forward and led the prayer. When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer he asked him: "What has prevented you to remain in your place (when I beckoned to you to do)?" he said: "It was not befitting for Ibn Abu Quhafah that Allah Almighty causes him to be ahead of His Messenger." Then he faced the people and asked them: "What is the matter with you that if anything doubtful befalls you in your prayer you clap your hands? This act is fitting only for women. But if anything doubtful befalls anyone of you in his prayer, let him say: 'Glory be to Allah'."

[25] The Judge Hints To One's Opponent To Accept Reconciliation

5424- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Ka'b Ibn Malik Al-Ansari from Ka'b Ibn Malik that Abdullah Ibn Abu Hadrad Al-Aslami owed him a debt, and when he met him, he stuck to him (to take back his debt), and they quarreled until their voices grew louder. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appeared to them, and said: "O Ka'b!" he beckoned with his hand, as if he asked him to reduce the debt to the half. He (accepted and) took back half the debt and let off the remaining half.

[26] The Judge Hints To One's Opponent To Excuse

5425- It is narrated on the authority of Wa'il Ibn Hujr that he said: I was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a killer tied with a leather string in his neck was brought to him. He called the heir of the murdered person and asked him: "Are you going to forgive him (the killer)?" he answered in the negative. He asked: "Then, are you going to accept the blood-money?" he answered in the negative. He asked him: "Then, are you going to kill him (in retaliation)?" he answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said to him: "Then, go with him (to do so)." When he turned away he asked him: "Are you going to forgive him (the killer)?" he answered in the negative. He asked: "Then, are you going to accept the blood-money?" he answered in the negative. He asked him: "Then, are you going to kill him (in retaliation)?" he answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said to him: "Then, go with him (to do so)." When

He asked him: "Then, are you going to kill him (in retaliation)?" he answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said to him: "Then, go with him (to do so)." Then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Behold! If you forgive him, he will draw his sin and the sin of his companion (whom he killed) upon himself." On that he (the blood claimant) forgave him. The narrator said: I saw him (the killer) dragging the leather string on the ground.

[27] The Judge Hints (To One's Opponent) To Be Lenient

5426- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair that an Ansari man appealed to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to judge between him and Az-Zubair about the Harrah Canals which were used for irrigating the date-palms. The Ansari man said to Az-Zubair: "Let the water pass." but Az-Zubair refused to do so. So, the case was brought before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Az-Zubair: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then let the water pass to your neighbour." On that the Ansari got angry and said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Is it for he (Zubair) is your aunt's son?" On that the colour of the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed (because of anger) and he said: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then withhold the water till it reaches the walls between the pits round the trees." Az-Zubair said: "I think that the following verse was revealed on this occasion": " But no, by your Lord, they can have no (real) Faith, until they make you judge in all disputes between them, and find in their souls no resistance against your decisions, but accept them with the fullest conviction." [28] The Judge's Intercession For The Opponents Before Deciding The Matter

5427- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the husband of Barirah was a slave called Mughith. It seems as if I'm seeing him, going round after her, weeping with his tears flowing on his beard (after she had been given the freedom to choose to remain or leave him and she chose to leave him). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abbas: "O Abbas! are you not astonished at the love of Mughith for Barirah and the hatred of Barirah for Mughith?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "O Barirah! One of them came out with her arm bleeding, and alleged that the other had wounded her. But the other refuted the claim. I sent a letter to Ibn Abbas pertaining to that case, and he sent to me a letter in which he told that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that the oath should be binding upon the defendant; and if the people were to be given only because of their claims, then, a lot of people would have claims over the property and blood of others. So, invite her (the defendant), and recite to her the following Holy Verse: " As for those who sell the faith they owe to Allah and their own plighted word for a small price, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter: nor will Allah (deign to) speak to them or look at them on the Day of Judgment, nor will He cleanse them (of sin): they shall have a grievous Penalty." (Al Imran 77) I invited her and recited that Holy Verse to her, thereupon she confessed (the guilt). He then got pleased with that.

5442- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abis Al-Juhani that The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to him: "O Ibn Abis! Should I not guide you to the best thing therewith such as seek refuge (from evil) do?" he said: "Yes O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak' and say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'. i.e. those two Surahs."

5443- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: A white mule was presented to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, which he rode and while Uqbah was leading it with him The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to Uqbah: "Recite!" he asked: "What should I recite O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Recite: 'Say: I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak, from the evil of what He has created...'" Uqbah said: he repeated it to me until I recited it and he came to know that I did not grow so much pleased with it as I should have been. On that he said: "Perhaps you have dealt with it slightly, even though I've never stood (at night for supererogatory prayer) with the like of it (in significance)."

5444- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he asked The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” about the (excellence of) both Surahs of seeking refuge (with Allah). He said: Thereupon The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” led the Morning prayer with them (in order to show him that both stand in the same position as the long Surahs do in the prayer).

5445- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah that The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” led the Morning prayer with both (Surahs of seeking refuge with Allah).

5446- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: While I was leading the riding mount of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” on journey, The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to me: "O Uqbah! Should I not teach you the best two Surahs to be recited (in the Qur'an)?" he taught me: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'" and "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." But he did not see that I had grown so much pleased with them (as I should have been). When he descended to offer the Morning prayer, he led the Morning prayer with them. When The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” finished from the prayer he turned to me and said: "O Uqbah! How have you come to feel?"

5442 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْوَلِيدُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَمْرِو عَنْ يَحْيَى عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّ ابْنَ عَابِسِ الْجُهَنِيِّ أَخْبَرَهُ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ لَهُ: «يَا ابْنَ عَابِسِ أَلَا أَدُلُّكَ» أَوْ قَالَ: «أَلَا أُخْبِرُكَ بِأَفْضَلِ مَا يَتَعَوَّذُ بِهِ الْمُتَعَوِّذُونَ؟» قَالَ: بَلَى يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ: «قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ هَاتَيْنِ السُّورَتَيْنِ».

5444 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ حِزَامٍ التُّرَيْمِذِيُّ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ صَالِحٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ بْنِ نُفَيْرٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ: أَنَّهُ سَأَلَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَنِ الْمُعَوِّذَتَيْنِ قَالَ عُقْبَةُ: «فَأَمَّا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِهِمَا فِي صَلَاةِ الْغَدَاةِ».

5445 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُعَاوِيَةُ عَنْ الْعَلَاءِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ عَنْ مَكْحُولٍ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَرَأَ بِهِمَا فِي صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ.

5446 - أَخْبَرَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي مُعَاوِيَةُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ عَنْ ابْنِ الْحَارِثِ وَهُوَ الْعَلَاءُ عَنِ الْقَاسِمِ مَوْلَى مُعَاوِيَةَ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ: كُنْتُ أَقُودُ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي السَّفَرِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «يَا عُقْبَةُ أَلَا أَعْلَمُكَ خَيْرَ سُورَتَيْنِ قُرِئَتَا؟» فَعَلَّمَنِي قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ فَلَمْ يَرِنِي سُرْرَتُ بِهِمَا جِدًّا فَلَمَّا نَزَلَ لِصَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ صَلَّى بِهِمَا صَلَاةَ الصُّبْحِ لِلنَّاسِ فَلَمَّا فَرَغَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِنَ الصَّلَاةِ أَلْتَفَتَ إِلَيَّ فَقَالَ: «يَا عُقْبَةُ كَيْفَ رَأَيْتَ؟».

5447- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: While I was driving the riding mount of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in one of those roads, he said to me: "Would you not ride (for some time) O Uqbah?" I regarded The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" too supreme for me to ride his riding mount (and let him walk on foot, and thus I rejected). He asked me once again: "Would you not ride O Uqbah?" I feared it (my rejection) might be regarded as disobedience, so (I agreed and) he descended and I rode for a while and then I descended and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode for a while. Then he said to me: "Should I not teach you the best Surahs which the people recite?" he made me recite: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'" and "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." Then the prayer was established, and he moved forward (to lead the prayer in which he) recited them. Then he came upon me and said: "How have you come to feel O Uqbah Ibn Amir? Recite them whenever you go to bed and get up (from your sleep)."

5448- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: While I was walking in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said to me: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he kept silent from me for a while after which he said: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he kept silent from me (for a while during which) I said (to myself): "O Allah! Make him repeat that to me." He said: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'." I recited it until I came to its end. He said: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." I recited it until I came to its end. At that point The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Of a surety, none has ever asked (Allah for anything) with the like of both, nor has a seeker of refuge sought refuge (from evil) with the like of them (before)."

5449- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was riding and I placed my hand on his foot and said: "Teach me how to recite the Surah of Hud! Teach me how to recite the Surah of Yusuf!" on that he said: "You will never recite anything, much grater (as far as seeking refuge with Allah is concerned) in the Sight of Allah Almighty than (the Surah in which He says) "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'.""

5447 - أَخْبَرَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْوَلِيدُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي ابْنُ جَابِرٍ عَنِ الْقَاسِمِ أَبِي عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ: بَيْنَا أَقُودُ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي نَقَبٍ مِنْ تِلْكَ النَّقَابِ إِذْ قَالَ: «أَلَا تَرْكُبُ يَا عُقْبَةُ؟» فَأَجَلَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ أَرْكَبَ مَرْكَبَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَلَا تَرْكُبُ يَا عُقْبَةُ؟» فَأَشْفَقْتُ أَنْ يَكُونَ مَعْصِيَةً فَنَزَلَ وَرَكِبْتُ هُنَيْهَةً وَنَزَلَتْ وَرَكِبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَلَا أُعَلِّمُكَ سُورَتَيْنِ مِنْ خَيْرِ سُورَتَيْنِ قَرَأَ بِهِمَا النَّاسُ؟»، فَأَقْرَأَنِي قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ فَأُقِيمَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَتَقَدَّمَ فَقَرَأَ بِهِمَا ثُمَّ مَرَّ بِي فَقَالَ: «كَيْفَ رَأَيْتَ يَا عُقْبَةُ بْنُ عَامِرٍ؟ أَقْرَأَ بِهِمَا كُلَّمَا نِمْتَ وَفُتِمْتَ».

5451- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to me: "Recite O Jabir!" I recited them and then he said to me: "Recite them (regularly) and you will never recite the like of them."

[2] Seeking Refuge From Having A Heart Which Never Submits

5452- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” used to seek refuge with Allah from four things: from having knowledge that is of no benefit, from having a heart which is not submissive (to Allah in service), from (supplicating with) an invocation which is not heard (and thus it is not responded to by Allah), and from having a soul which is not satisfied (with what is given to it)."

5454- It is narrated on the authority of Shakal Ibn Humaid that he said: I went to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: "O Messenger of Allah! (He kept saying it) until I retained it in memory.

[1] The Prohibition Of Wine

Allah Almighty says: " O you who believe! intoxicants and gambling, (dedication of) stones, and (divination by) arrows, are an abomination of Satan's handiwork: eschew such (abomination), that you may prosper. Satan's plan is (but) to excite enmity and hatred between you, with intoxicants and gambling, and hinder you from the remembrance of Allah, and from prayer: will you not then abstain?" (Al-Ma'idah 90:91)

5550- It is narrated on the authority of Umar that (a short time before) wine was prohibited, Umar said: "O Allah! Would that You give us a clear decisive statement concerning the (prohibition of) wine!" so, this Verse in the Surah of Al-Baqarah was revealed: "They ask you concerning wine and gambling. Say in them is great sin..." then, Umar was called and the Verse was recited to him, but he said: "O Allah! Would that You give us a clear decisive statement concerning the (prohibition of) wine!" then, the Verse pertaining to that in the Surah of Women was revealed: "O you who believe! Approach not Prayers with a mind befogged, until you can understand all that you say..." (43) whenever the caller of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to prayer pronounced the prayer establishment, he would say: "Behold! Let none who is intoxicated approach the prayer!" then, Umar was called and the Verse was recited to him, but he said: "O Allah! Would that You give us a clear decisive statement concerning the (prohibition of) wine!" then, the Verse pertaining to that in the Surah of Repast was revealed, and Umar was called and the Verse was recited to him, and when he came to His saying: "will you not then abstain?" 5663 - أَخْبَرَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ آدَمَ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ عَنِ ابْنِ فَضِيلٍ عَنْ أَبِي سِنَانٍ عَنْ مُحَارِبِ بْنِ دِثَارٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنِّي كُنْتُ نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ زِيَارَةِ الْقُبُورِ فَزُورُوهَا وَنَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ لُحُومِ الْأَصْحَاجِ فَوْقَ ثَلَاثَةِ أَيَّامٍ فَأَمْسِكُوا مَا بَدَا لَكُمْ وَنَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنِ النَّبِيذِ إِلَّا فِي سِقَاءٍ فَأَشْرَبُوا فِي الْأَسْقِيَةِ كُلِّهَا وَلَا تَشْرَبُوا مُسْكِرًا».

5664 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مَعْدَانَ بْنِ عِيسَى بْنِ مَعْدَانَ الْحَرَّانِيُّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ أَغَيْنٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا زُهَيْرٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا زُبَيْدٌ عَنْ مُحَارِبِ بْنِ ابْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنِّي كُنْتُ نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ ثَلَاثِ زِيَارَةِ الْقُبُورِ فَزُورُوهَا وَلْتَزِدْكُمْ زِيَارَتُهَا خَيْرًا وَنَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ لُحُومِ الْأَصْحَاجِ بَعْدَ ثَلَاثٍ فَكُلُوا مِنْهَا مَا شِئْتُمْ

like. Furthermore, I had forbidden you to brew fruits in such vessels (as the gourd, coloured jar, etc), but now you might drink (such of drinks as whose fruits are brewed) in any utensil as you like, and save yourselves from any intoxicant."

5665- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I had forbidden you (to brew fruits in) such vessels (as the gourd, the coloured jar, etc), but now you might brew fruits in any utensil as you like, and safeguard yourselves from any intoxicant."

5666- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on his way, he alighted near a people and he heard them making noise. He asked: "What is the source of this noise?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! Those (people) brew fruits whose drink they get (and it is that which causes this noise)." He sent somebody to invite them, and (when they came) he asked them: "In which vessels do you brew fruits?" they said: "We do that in the hollow stump of date-palm trees and the dry gourd, and we have no receptacles." He said to them: "Then, drink not but in such (of leather containers as) you tie up its mouth." He spent as long as Allah willed him to spend after which he came back to them and found them having been befallen by severe illness and their faces turned yellow. He asked them: "What is the reason that I see you have been (about to be) destroyed?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! Our land is infected and you have forbidden us to drink but in such (of leather containers as) are tied up." On that he said: "Then drink (in such of vessels as you like putting in consideration that) every intoxicant (of drinks) is unlawful."

5667- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade using pitchers, the Ansar complained: "O Messenger of Allah! We have no containers (to brew fruits in them)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not then."

[41] The Position Of Wine

5668- it is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Two vessels of wine and milk were brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the very night he was made to set out on his Night Journey, and he caught a glimpse of both and then he took the vessel of milk. On that Gabriel said to him: "Praise be to Allah Who has guided you to the true nature (on which man is created). Had you taken the (vessel of) wine, your nation would have gone astray."

5669- it is narrated on the authority of Ibn Muhairiz from one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Some of my nation will drink wine, giving it a name other than its real name."

[42] The Severe Warning Of Drinking Wine

5670- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The adulterer is not to be a (completely) believer at the time he commits adultery. The thief is not to be a believer at the time he steals. The drunk is not to be a believer at the time he drinks wine. And the robber is not to be a believer at the time he robs anything, because of which the people raise their eyes to him."

5671- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The adulterer is not to be a (completely) believer at the time he commits adultery. The thief is not to be a believer at the time he steals. The drunk is not to be a believer at the time he drinks wine. And the robber is not to be a believer at the time he robs a valuable thing, because of which the Muslims raise their sights to him."

5672- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar and many from amongst the companions of Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one drinks wine, lash him; and if he drinks it once again, lash him, and if he drinks it (for the third time) lash him, and if he drinks it (for the fourth time) then kill him."

5673- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one becomes drunk, lash him; and if he becomes drunk once again, lash him, and if he becomes intoxicated (for the third time) lash him, and if he becomes drunk (for the fourth time) then chop off his head."

5674- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Burdah Ibn Abu Musa from his father that he used to say: It is the same to me to drink wine or (become a pagan and) worship this pillar apart from Allah. (That is for the wine had, in his sight, the same position as paganism had).

[43] What About The Prayer Of The Drunk?

5675- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Ad-Dailami that he rode (and traveled) to meet Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As. He said: I entered into him and asked him: Did you hear, O Abdullah Ibn Amr, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioning anything relating to wine? He said: Yes: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "NO one of my nation drinks wine but that Allah Almighty will not accept prayer from him for forty nights."

5676- It is narrated on the authority of Masruq that he said: If a judge devours a gift (from one of the opponents), he will have eaten something forbidden; and if he accepts bribe, he will have attained infidelity. He further said: If one drinks wine, he will have become an infidel; and his infidelity means there is no prayer (to be accepted) from him.

[44] The Sins Resulting From Drinking Wine

5677- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman that he said: Avoid drinking wine for indeed it is the mother of impurities. There was a worshipper from those who were before you, and a prostitute was attached to him. She sent her slave-girl to him with the message that 'we invite you for martyrdom'. He went with her slave-girl and whenever he entered a place she closed the door behind him, until he entered upon a charming woman having a boy and a vessel of wine. She said to him: "I, by Allah, have not invited you for martyrdom. But I've invited you to have sexual relation with me, or to have a cup of this wine, or to kill this boy." He said: "Then, (if there is no way to flee from that) give me a cup of this wine." When she gave him a cup he asked for more, and he did not leave (the place) until he had sexual relation with her and killed the soul (of the boy). So, you should eschew drinking wine, for by Allah, never do wine addiction and faith (in Allah) gather but that one of both is about to prevail over the other.

5678- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman that he said: Avoid drinking wine for indeed it is the mother of impurities. There was a worshipper from those who were before you, and he isolated himself from the people (to be devoted to the service of Allah)...So, you must eschew drinking wine, for by Allah, never do wine and faith (in Allah) gather but that one of both is about to prevail over the other.

5679- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Whoever drinks wine, even though he does not become intoxicated, no prayer is accepted from him as long as there is something of it inside his abdomen or veins, and if he dies (while being as such) he will have died as an infidel; and if he becomes intoxicated, no prayer will be accepted

[45] The Repentance Of Wine Drinker

5681- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Ad-Dailami that he said: I visited Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As in one of his gardens in Ta'if known as Wahat, and he had a young man from the Quraish, with their hands on the waist of each other and he was accused of drinking wine. He said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Whoever has even a sip of wine, no repentance will be accepted from him for forty days, and if he repents (after that) Allah will turn to him in repentance; and if he returns (to drink it once again) his repentance will not be accepted from him for forty days, and if he repents (after that) Allah will turn to him in repentance; and if he returns (to drinking it for the third time) Allah will have the right to make him drink from Tinat Al-Khabal (the drink of the denizens of the fire of Hell) on the Day of Judgement."

5682- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who drinks wine in the world and does not give up drinking it (before he dies) it will be forbidden to him in the hereafter."

[48] The Reasons Therewith Such As Drinks What Is Intoxicant Justifies His Conduct

5688- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Burdah Ibn Niyar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Drink in the receptacles, but do not get intoxicated." Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says: This narration is false.

5689- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buraidah from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (brewing fruits in) the dry gourd, the green-coloured jar, the hollow stump of date-palm trees and the pitched receptacle.

5690- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: "Drink (whatever you like in whichever you like) and do not get intoxicated." Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says: This narration is also false.

5691- It is narrated on the authority of Jasrah Bint Dajajah Al-Amiriyah that she heard A'ishah's reply to many people who asked her about the fruit brew saying: "We brew dates in the morning in order to drink it in the evening, and brew that in the evening in order to drink it in the morning." A'ishah said: "I never make lawful what is intoxicant, even though it is bread, even though it is only water." She said that thrice.

5692- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: You have been forbidden (to brew fruits in) the dry gourd, the hollow stump of date-palm trees and the pitcher. She then faced women and said to them: I beware you of using the green-coloured jar, and even if the water of your barrels intoxicates you, do not drink it.

5694- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Shubrumah from Abdullah Ibn Shaddad Ibn Al-Had from Ibn Abbas that he said: The wine has been forbidden, no matter little or much it might be, and such amount of any drink as causes intoxication (has been prohibited). Ibn Shubrumah did not hear it direct from Abdullah Ibn Shaddad.

Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says that this narration is more fitting to be right and reliable.

5698- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Juwairiyah Al-Jarmi that he said: I asked Ibn Abbas about Badhaq (the Persian equivalent of wine), while he was reclining his back against the (wall of the) Ka'bah. He said: I was the first from amongst the Arabs to ask him about that.

confusion because of that." He made a mention of many kinds of drinks to the extent that I thought he had not understood him. On that Ibn Abbas said: "You've mentioned a lot of drinks: eschew what is intoxicant of drinks prepared from dates, raisins, or anything else."

5701- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The brew of unripe hard dates (that is prepared in the forbidden vessels) is unlawful, even though it is not mixed with anything else.

5702- it is narrated on the authority of Abu Jamrah that he said: I was acting as an interpreter between Ibn Abbas and the people, when a woman came to ask him about what is brewed in the coloured jar, and he forbade it to her. I said to him: "O Ibn Abbas! I brew fruits in a green-coloured jar, and when I drink it, it causes my abdomen to crackle." He said: "Drink not from it even though it is much sweeter than honey."

5703- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Jamrah that he said: I said to Ibn Abbas: My grandmother brews fruits in a coloured jar, and I drink from it since it is sweet, but if I get more of it and sit among the people, I fear I might be put to shame (lest the signs of intoxication would be visible on me). He said: The delegate of Abd Al-Qais came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to them: "Welcome! O people of Abd Al-Qais! Neither will you have disgrace nor will you regret." They said: "O Allah's Apostle! We cannot come to you except in the sacred months since there are the pagans intervening between you and us. So please order us to do something good (concerning religion) by which we may enter the Garden, and of which we may inform our people whom we have left behind." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I order you to do three things and forbid you (to use) four things. I order you to believe in Allah Alone: do you know what the faith in Allah is?" they said: "Allah and His Messenger know best." He said: "It is to testify that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah and that Muhammad is Allah's Apostle; to offer prayers perfectly; to pay the obligatory charity; and to pay one fifth of the booty to be given for Allah's sake. Then I forbid you to do four things, i.e. to drink what is brewed in dry gourd, green-coloured jar, hollow stump of palm-trees, and pitcher."

5704- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Wahban that he said: I said to Ibn Abbas: I have a small coloured jar, in which I brew fruits, and when it has boiled and calmed down I drink it. He said: How long have you been getting such a drink? I said: I've been drinking it for twenty or forty years. On that he said: Then, your veins have long been quenched by that impurity!

5704 - أَخْبَرَنَا سُوَيْدٌ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ التَّيْمِيِّ عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ وَهْبَانَ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ قُلْتُ: إِنَّ لِي جُرَيْرَةً أَتَيْدُ فِيهَا حَتَّى إِذَا عَلَى وَسَكَنَ شَرِبْتُهِ قَالَ: مُذْ كَمْ هَذَا شَرَابُكَ؟ قُلْتُ: مُذْ عِشْرُونَ سَنَةً أَوْ قَالَ: مُذْ أَرْبَعُونَ سَنَةً قَالَ: طَالَمَا تَرَوْتُ عُرُوقَكَ مِنَ الْخَبَثِ.

However, they depended upon the narration of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Nafi' which he related from Abdullah Ibn Umar.

5705- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Umar that he said: A man brought a vessel full of brew to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was sitting near the Corner (of the House). He gave the vessel to him. When he lifted the vessel to his mouth, he found it too intense (and strong to drink) thereupon he gave it back to its owner. A man from among the present people said: "Is it unlawful O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Bring me the man!" when he was brought to him he took the vessel from him, and asked for water, which he poured in it and lifted it to his mouth but (since it was still intense and strong) he frowned. He asked for more water and poured it in the vessel, and said: "If (the contents of) those vessels become too intense and strong for you (to drink out of boiling), then dilute the intensity with water."

5706- The same is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abu Abd Ar-Rahman thinks that those two narrations are false.

5707- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that a man asked him about drinks, thereupon he said: Eschew such of drinks as has boiled.

5708- It is narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Umar about drinks, thereupon he said: Eschew such of drinks as has boiled (and become too strong to drink).

5709- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Such (of drinks as) intoxicant is unlawful, no matter little or much it might be.

5710- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Every intoxicant (of drinks) is wine, and every intoxicant (of drinks) is unlawful.

5711- It is narrated on the authority of Salim Ibn Abdullah from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah Almighty has prohibited wine; and every intoxicant (of drinks) is unlawful."

5712- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Every intoxicant (of drinks) is wine, and every intoxicant (of drinks) is unlawful." Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says that those four narrations are more right and their chains of transmission are more reliable.

5713- It is narrated on the authority of Ruqayyah Bint Amr Ibn Sa'id that she said: I was under the guardianship of Ibn Umar, and it was his habit that raisins would be soaked for him (in the water) in order that he would drink its juice in the coming morning, and then it would be dried and another quantity of raisins would be added to that, and soaked in the water in order that he would drink the resulting juice in the next morning. But in the third morning, he would throw that away. However, they depended upon the narration of Abu Mas'ud: Uqbah Ibn Amr.

5714- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud that he said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became thirsty and he was (in the area) surrounding the Ka'bah. He asked for water and a water-skin full of brew was brought to him, and when he smelled it he frowned (since he found it too intense and strong to drink out of fermentation). He said: "Bring me a bucket full of water of Zamzam." He poured water over it and then drank from it. A man asked: "Is it unlawful O Messenger of Allah?" he answered in the negative. (This narration is weak).

5715- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I came to know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was fasting on one of those days on which he used to observe fasts. So I sought for the time of breaking his fast to give him a fruit brew which I prepared for him in a dry gourd. When it was evening I came to him carrying that drink and I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! I have come to know that you are fasting this day, so I sought for the time of breaking your fast to give you this brew." He said: "Bring it close (to me) O Abu Hurairah." I brought it close to him and behold! It was boiling (out of fermentation). He said: "Take and spill that over the wall for this is the drink of such as has no faith in Allah nor in the Last Day." They depended also upon the act of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab.

5716- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Rafi' that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: If you fear that a drink might become intense (because of fermentation) then, dilute it with water before it becomes intense.

5717- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that he said: The (people of) Tha'qif received Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) with a drink and when he got it and brought it close to his mouth he disliked it (for its intensity). He asked for it and diluted it with water and said: As such you might do.

5718- It is narrated on the authority of Utbah Ibn Farqad that he said: The fruit brew which Umar Ibn Al-Khattab drank was soured; and this is shown in the narration of As-Sa'ib.

However, Umar Ibn Al-Khattab gave him the lashes of the legal punishment in full.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Is it intoxicating?" He answered in the affirmative. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every intoxicant is unlawful. Verily Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" has pledged to those who drink intoxicants that He would make their drink (in the hereafter) Tinat Al-Khabal." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! What is Tinat Al-Khabal?" He said: "It is the sweat of the dwellers of the fire (of Hell) or the discharge of the denizens of the fire (of Hell)."

[50] Exhortation To Leave What Is Suspicious

5721- It is narrated on the authority of An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir that he said: I heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "What is legal is clearly evident, and what is illegal is clearly evident, and in between them there are doubtful matters (of which lots of people have no knowledge); and let me set forth an example to you for that: Verily, Allah Almighty has made a protected zone, and indeed, Allah's protected zone is what He Almighty has forbidden; and whoever pastures animals round the protected zone is about to mix with it; and whoever mixes with what is suspicious is about to dare (to do what is unlawful)."

5722- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Hawra' As-Sa'di that he said: I said to Al-Hasan Ibn Ali: What have you kept (by heart) from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? he said: I've kept from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" his statement: "Leave that which arouses suspicion in you (and you are uncertain whether it is lawful or unlawful and stick) to that which does not arouse suspicion in you (since it is evidently clear)."

[52] It Is Undesirable To Sell The Compressed Grapes

5724- It is narrated on the authority of Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd that he said: Sa'd had a ranch having multitudes of plants and vines, and there was a caretaker appointed by him there. One year it yielded a great deal of grapes and he sent a letter to him in which he said: "I'm afraid the grapes might be vulnerable to damage. So, if you see it better to compress that, I would compress that (and sell the juice of compressed grapes)." Sa'd sent to him in reply saying: "When you receive this letter of mine, you should retire from working in my ranch at once, for by Allah, I will never entrust anything to you after that."

5725- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Sirin that he said: You might sell the compress grapes to such as prepares juice from that, and not to such as makes wine from that.

5727- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I read the letter sent by Umar to Abu Musa in which he said: "To go further: a caravan from Sham has come to me, carrying a thick black drink, like the tar of camels, and I asked them about the quantity (which they let evaporate) on cooking its (fruits), and they told me that they cook its (fruits) and let two thirds evaporate, i.e. the two thirds which are impure fade away, one for its intensity (which leads to intoxication), and the other for its bad smell (and thus only one third, which tastes good remains). So, order those who are with you to drink it (if they so like)."

5728- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Yazid Al-Khatmi that he said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab sent a letter to us in which he said: "To go further: cook (the fruits of) your drink (of grapes and let it boil) until the portion of Satan fades away, for indeed, Satan's portion is two times yours."

5765- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abza from his father that he said: I asked Ubai about the fruit brew and he said: "Drink water, drink honey, drink Sawiq, and drink the milk therewith you were fed (while you were a young child)." I asked him once again and he said: "Do you mean wine? Do you mean wine?"

5766- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Mas'ud that he said: "The people have innovated so many drinks and I do not know what they are. Along twenty or forty years, I have no drink other than water and Sawiq." However, no mention was made by him of the fruit brew.

5767- It is narrated on the authority of Abidah that he said: "The people have innovated so many drinks and I do not know what they are. Along twenty years, I have no drink other than water, milk and honey."

5768- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Shubrumah that he said: Talhah said to the people of Kufah: "There is affliction in the fruit brew, in which the young would grow strong, and the man would grow very old." Whenever there was a wedding party among the people, both Talhah and Zubair would provide people with milk and honey. It was said to Talhah: "Would you not provide fruit brew?" he said: "I dislike that a Muslim might get intoxicated because of me."

5769- it is narrated on the authority of Jarir that he said: It was the habit of Ibn Shubrumah to drink (from among the drinks) only water and milk.
